WILLIAM O. DeWITT JR.

PRINCIPAL OWNER AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Bill DeWitt Jr. has served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Cardinals since 1996, when he led the purchase of the team from Anheuser Busch. DeWitt oversees all baseball, operational, financial and league matters for the team. He is Chairman of the Major League Baseball Finance Committee, former Chairman of the Executive Council, a member of the Board of MLB Advanced Media and served on the Labor Policy Committee which reached agreement with the Players Association on the current five-year Collective Bargaining Agreement. During 2014, he served as Chairman of the Commissioner's Succession Committee. Mr. DeWitt is also a member of the board of the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

DeWitt, a native St. Louisan, is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School, received his B.A. Degree in economics from Yale University in 1963, and M.B.A. Degree from Harvard Business School in 1965. As the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt, he has deep roots in baseball dating back to his childhood. Mr. DeWitt's father began his career with the Cardinals in 1916 and worked in a variety of executive positions under Branch Rickey until the early 1940s when he joined the St. Louis Browns as General Manager. He was twice named Executive of the Year, was sole owner of the Cincinnati Reds from 1961-67 and majority owner of the Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's bat boy. His uniform (number 1/8) was worn by Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch hitting appearance on August 19, 1951.

DeWitt, Jr. has been a prior owner of the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He was also a shareholder of the Cincinnati Bengals Football Team and the Cincinnati Stingers Hockey Team, and has had a long career in private equity with Reynolds DeWitt & Co. and DeWitt Capital Group. He is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis, and they have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew, and Margot, and 12 grandchildren.

Under his leadership, the Cardinals have had a number of significant achievements, including the following:

- Opened a new spring training facility in Jupiter, Fla., in 1998.
- Purchased the Palm Beach Cardinals of the Florida State League (A) in 1998.
- Purchased the Springfield Cardinals of the Texas League (AA) in 2005 and opened the new Hammons Field in Springfield, Mo.
- Privately financed, built, and opened the new Busch Stadium in April, 2006.
- Hosted Major League Baseball's 2009 All-Star Game.
- Developed special events business highlighted by concerts by Dave Mathews Band, the Eagles, U2, Paul McCartney, Billy Joel, Metallica, international soccer matches and the National Hockey League Winter Classic.
- Surpassed 3 million in attendance 19 times since 1996, including the last 14 consecutive seasons.
- Won 11 Division Titles (1996, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2013, 2014, 2015), two Wild Cards (2011, 2012), four National League Pennants (2004, 2006, 2011, 2013) and two World Championships (2006, 2011).
- Won 71 postseason games - most amongst all National League teams since 1996.
- Opened Ballpark Village, March 2014 and broke ground on Phase II of Ballpark Village in December 2017.
- Purchased the Memphis Redbirds of the Pacific Coast League (AAA), March 2014; and subsequently sold 75% of the team in April 2016.
- Signed a new 15-year rights agreement with FOX Sports Midwest that begins in 2018 and includes an equity component as part of the overall transaction.

WILLIAM DeWITT, III
PRESIDENT

Bill DeWitt III was named President of the St. Louis Cardinals in March, 2008. In his role as team President, DeWitt oversees all aspects of the team and its affiliates, including the Memphis Redbirds, Springfield Cardinals, Palm Beach Cardinals, Fox Sports Midwest, and Ballpark Village. He led the effort to develop Ballpark Village, a 120,000 sq. ft. retail/entertainment project adjacent to Busch Stadium which opened in 2014. In 2017, the Cardinals and their development partners, The Cordish Companies, broke ground on Phase II of the project which will open in 2019 and include an apartment tower, hotel, office tower, and additional retail.

Prior to his appointment as team President, DeWitt was Sr. Vice President of Business Development with the Cardinals and oversaw the design and construction of the new Busch Stadium, which opened in April, 2006. Prior to that, he was involved in several merchandising, marketing, and operational projects for the team. DeWitt was also involved in the planning for Roger Dean Stadium in Jupiter, Florida, where the Cardinals conduct Spring Training.

DeWitt, 50, graduated cum laude from the Taft School in 1986 and went on to graduate cum laude from Yale University in 1990. He then served as an assistant to William Reilly, head of the U.S. EPA in Washington D.C. He earned an MBA from Harvard Business School in 1995.

DeWitt is chairman of the Board of Cardinals Care and also sits on the boards of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Eastern Missouri, the St. Louis Sports Commission, the RCGA, and the Gateway Arch Park Foundation.

DeWitt and his wife, Ira, live in St. Louis with their two children - daughter Natalie (19) and son, Will (16). Bill is an avid golfer and ice hockey player.

JOHN MOZELIAK
PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

John "Mo" Mozeliak was named President of Baseball Operations on June 30, 2017, the first to be named to that position in franchise history. Mozeliak had served as the team's Senior Vice President and General Manager for almost 10 full seasons, since October, 2007. He was the 12th general manager in the over 125-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, and had previously held the position of Assistant General Manager for six seasons. His contract runs through the 2020 season.

Under Mozeliak, the Cardinals have reached the postseason six times, including five-straight seasons from 2011-2015, the first time in team history the club had reached the playoffs in five consecutive seasons. During that run, the Cardinals won three-straight National League Central Division titles (2013-2015), and have won four N.L. Central Titles overall (also 2009) under Mo's leadership. The five-year postseason run began with St. Louis' 11th World Championship in 2011.

The 2017 season was the Cardinals 10th-consecutive winning season, a streak that began when Mozeliak was named General Manager prior to the 2008 season. The Cardinals 897 wins in those 10 seasons under Mozeliak's watch are third only to the New York Yankees (910) and Los Angeles Dodgers (900). Two Cardinals affiliates won their respective league championships last season with the Memphis Redbirds winning a record 97 games and the Pacific Coast League crown, and the Palm Beach Cardinals sharing the Florida State League title after the championship series was cancelled due to weather.

A consistent culture of retaining key players has resulted in several significant deals aimed at keeping the organization's top talent in St. Louis. Since 2012, the club has worked out multi-year deals with All-Stars Yadier Molina (2012 & 2017), Carlos Martinez (2017), Matt Carpenter (2014), Adam Wainwright (2013), and inked Kolten Wong (2016) and Paul DeJong (2018) to multi-year deals as well.

Mozeliak engineered a series of late season moves in 2011 that transformed the Cardinals and saw the team go from 10 ½ games back in late August to winning the franchise's 11th World Championship. Baseball America named the Cardinals the 2011 Organization of the Year, the first time the franchise had received the honor. Mo was the 2011 recipient of the MLB.com GIBBY (Greatness in Baseball Yearly) Executive of the Year award and he was named, along with Tony La Russa, as the 2011 Baseball Man of the Year by the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In 2012, after the selection of Mike Matheny as manager, the Cardinals fell just one win shy of capturing the N.L. Championship, and with the team's success, Mo was honored by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum with the Andrew "Rube" Foster Award as Executive of the Year. The 2013 team won the National League Championship and returned to the World Series just two years removed from winning the World Series title in 2011. Following that season, the organization was recognized by Baseball America as the Organization of the Year - the second such honor in three years - and was honored by USA Today Sports as having the best franchise among Major League baseball teams. The 2014 team captured the Central Division title for a second-straight season and returned to the National League Championship Series for a fourth-straight year. St. Louis led all Major League Baseball teams in wins and reached the postseason for a fifth-straight season in 2015, the ninth time in franchise history a Cardinals team had won 100 games.

Mozeliak, 49, is a 23-year veteran of the Cardinals front office, having joined the organization following the 1995 season where he initially served as an assistant in scouting operations during both the 1996 and 1997 seasons. Mo was named assistant scouting director in 1998 and was promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of '99 and 2000 under Mo's direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft, as well as catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeliak was named Director of Baseball Operations and in 2003 he was promoted to Assistant General Manager. During his time as Assistant GM, Mo's duties increased as he focused more on the Major League Club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and the University of Colorado. He currently serves as the National Trustee for the Foundation Fighting Blindness, is an active fund raiser for American Parkinson Disease Association and sits on the Mercy Hospital Foundation board. Mozeliak lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, daughter, Allyson, and son, Will.

MICHAEL GIRSCH
VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Michael Girsch was promoted to Vice President and General Manager on June 30, 2017, becoming the 13th General Manager in franchise history. His contract as General Manager runs through the 2020 season, and he is responsible for handling the day-to-day work of the team, including coordinating the efforts of the team's baseball development group, contract negotiations, player evaluations and player transactions.

Prior to his appointment as GM, Girsch served as Cardinals Assistant General Manager for seven seasons after being appointed to that position in January 2011. Girsch joined the Cardinals in 2006, starting his career with a two year stint as the Coordinator of Amateur Scouting.

In 2008, Girsch was named Director of Baseball Development, a newly created department focused on supporting Baseball Operations via internet applications, analytical models and decision support tools. He led the department for three years before his promotion to Assistant GM, and has continued to guide the group into his current expanded role.

Before he joined the Cardinals, Girsch, 41, earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. He and his wife, Kelly, reside in Webster Groves with their four children, twins Addison and Eleanor (13), Claire (11) and Tommy (10).

MOISÉS RODRIGUEZ
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Moisés Rodriguez was named the team's Assistant General Manager on September 27, 2017. Rodriguez has been a part of the organization for 10 seasons as the Director of International Operations. In his role as Assistant General Manager, Rodriguez will assist both the President of Baseball Operations and VP & General Manager with Major League player transactions, contract negotiations and player evaluations, and will help oversee all aspects of Baseball Operations including amateur and pro scouting, player development, international operations and baseball development.

Before becoming Assistant GM, Rodriguez directed the team's amateur scouting effort overseas, and supervised the player development and facility operations at the Cardinals Dominican Republic Academy. During his tenure, the international scouting department identified Cardinal pitchers Carlos Martinez and Alex Reyes as well as the late Oscar Taveras. The department also identified players such as Sandy Alcantara, Magneuris Sierra, Luis Perdomo, and Allen Cordoba. Under his supervision, the Cardinals moved into a newly built player development academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic in 2015.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez worked for Major League Baseball in New York from 1998-2007, the last three-plus years as Manager of International Baseball Operations in the Commissioner's Office. During his tenure in the Commissioner's Office, he also specialized in the day-to-day handling of the waiver wire and rule enforcement related to clubs' Major and Minor League player movement transactions. His first position at MLB in 1998 was as an assistant in Media Relations and waivers for the National League office. He began his work in sports as an Assistant Director of Sports Information at the University of Connecticut.

Rodriguez, 44, was born in Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, before moving to New York City. He received a communications degree from the University of Connecticut. He and his wife, Michelle, have two sons: Moisés Angel (9) and Christian (5).

GARY LaROCQUE
DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gary LaRocque was named Director of Player Development prior to the 2014 season and in this role oversees all aspects of player development. LaRocque joined the St. Louis organization in 2008 as Senior Special Assistant to the General Manager and was named Senior Advisor to Player Development prior to the 2013 season.

LaRocque is in his 43rd year in professional baseball in player development and scouting. He served in senior management levels for the New York Mets beginning in 1998 as Scouting Director, Assistant General Manager, VP Player Development & Scouting and was Vice President of Professional Scouting in 2006.

Before joining the Mets, LaRocque started his professional playing career as an infielder in 1975 with the Milwaukee Brewers, and in 1979 began a 19-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers as a minor league coach. LaRocque was a manager in the minors through 1988 before moving into the Dodgers' scouting department from 1989-97.

LaRocque acquired his degree in secondary education (mathematics) in 1975 from the University of Hartford, West Hartford, Conn., and was elected to the Athletic Hall of Fame at the University of Hartford in 1993.

RANDY FLORES
DIRECTOR, SCOUTING

Randy Flores was named the Cardinals Director of Scouting on August 28, 2015. Flores oversees all aspects of the scouting department including the amateur draft.

Prior to joining the Cardinals front office, Flores founded a sports technology company that provided customized video and data integration to assist in the instruction and evaluation of amateur players.

Drafted in 1997 from the University of Southern California as its all-time wins leader (42), he returned to USC to earn a M.Ed Postsecondary Administration in 2014. During graduate school, he was USC's Pitching Coach (2013) and worked as a college baseball analyst for ESPN and Pac-12 Networks.

Flores, 42, was part of the Cardinals 2006 World Series Championship team and spent eight seasons in the Majors. The left-hander played for St. Louis from 2004-08, appearing in over 200 games as a relief pitcher. Drafted by the New York Yankees, Flores made his Major League debut in 2002 with the Texas Rangers and also saw big league action with Colorado (2002, 2009-10) and Minnesota (2010).

A native of Pico Rivera, Calif., Flores and his wife, Lindsey, reside in St. Louis with their two daughters, Sloane (8) and Rowan (6), and newborn son Hawkins.

JOHN VUCH
DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

John Vuch is in his 31st season in Baseball Operations and 40th overall with the Cardinals. He was named to his current position following the 2013 season and he assists the VP/General Manager in all aspects of the Major League club, including taking the lead on arbitration cases, as well as handling contract negotiations for some of the 40-man roster players and minor league free agents.

Vuch held the title of Farm Director from September 2010 through the 2012 seasons, and during that time oversaw Championships for three teams [Quad Cities (A) & Johnson City (R) in 2011, Springfield (AA) in 2012]. The two championships in 2011 marked the first time since 1994 multiple Cardinals minor league affiliates won league championships, and the 2012 Springfield Cardinal team was recognized as the Minor League Team of the Year. Under his leadership, the 2010 Cardinals Minor League system had the highest combined winning percentage of any Major League organization and the Cardinals were recognized as the 2011 Organization of the Year by Baseball America. At the conclusion of the 2012 season, the Cardinals minor league system was ranked #1 by Baseball Prospectus, Baseball America and ESPN. He served as Director of Minor League Operations in 2013 and 2007-2010, and was responsible for the daily operations of the Cardinals' farm system including minor league player personnel decisions. He began working for the Cardinals as a "runner" in 1979 and worked in the Sales Department from 1985 to 1987.

Vuch was awarded the 2009 Harry Mitauer Good Guy Award by the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA of America at their 51st annual dinner.

A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from Oakville High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vuch and his wife, Maria, reside in south St. Louis County and have three children: Jack (23), Hayley (20) and Anna (17).

LUIS MORALES
DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS & ADMINISTRATION

Luis Morales enters his eighth season with the Cardinals and first as the Director of International Operations and Administration. He was promoted to his current role in November 2017 after previously serving as the Assistant Director of International Operations for the previous three seasons. Morales started with the Cardinals as an International Operations Intern in 2011. His main responsibilities in his new position are coordinating the organization's amateur scouting effort overseas, and supervising the player development and facility operations at the Cardinals Dominican Republic Academy.

Prior to the Cardinals, Morales worked four years with the Cleveland Indians as a Coordinator, Venezuelan Scouting. He started his career with Leones Del Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Morales, 35, earned his Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Universidad Catolica Andres Bello in Venezuela and his Master's degree in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla.

Born and raised in Caracas, Venezuela, Morales currently resides in Jupiter, Fla.

MIKE JORGENSEN
SENIOR SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Jorgensen has served as a Special Assistant to the General Manager since September 2001. He was Director of Player Development for 10 seasons (1992-01), and was the team's minor league hitting instructor/coordinator in 1990 and 1991.

Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season, 'Jorgy' was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system and was a minor league manager from 1986-89. He made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, he also remained in his post as Director of Player Development.

Jorgensen was a left-handed-hitting first baseman/outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968. He was traded to Montreal at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland, Texas, the Mets again, Atlanta and St. Louis.

Jorgensen, 69, graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., attended St. John's University and served from 1967-72 in the United States Marine Corps Reserve. He and his wife, Melissa Lee, make their home in St. Louis. Jorgensen and his late wife, Brenda, have three married children; Brian, Kristen and Eric, four grandsons: Eric, Jacob, James and Owen, and two granddaughters: Quinn Ann and Clara Marie.

BOB GEBHARD
SENIOR SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Gebhard joined the Cardinals in 2017 as Sr. Special Assistant to Sr. VP/ General Manager John Mozeliak, and is in his 54th season in professional baseball. He came to St. Louis after 12 seasons with the Arizona Diamondbacks as Vice President & Special Assistant to the GM, the same role he held with the Cardinals from 2000-04.

Gebhard was on the ground floor of the Colorado Rockies franchise, joining the club during the winter of 1991 as the first General Manager in the team's history. He joined the Rockies from the Minnesota Twins where he won a pair of World Series rings in 1987 and 1991.

Gebhard was drafted by the Twins in the 15th round of the first June draft in 1965 and had an 11-year playing career with both the Twins and Montreal Expos. He was a player/coach in the Montreal organization from 1974-75, then coached in Montreal's system through 1986, including on the Major League coaching staff in 1982.

In 2012, Gebhard received the Roland Hemond Award from the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR) and in 2011 was named the recipient of the Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award from Minor League Baseball.

A native of Lamberton, Minn., Gebhard earned 16 letters in four sports in high school. His athletic career continued at the University of Iowa, where he co-captained the baseball team and played basketball. Gebhard and his wife, Nancy, reside in Centennial, Colo., and have three children, Angie, Jenny and Casey, and eight grandchildren.

DANE SORENSEN
DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL DEVELOPMENT

Dane Sorensen is in his seventh year with the Cardinals and second year as Director of Baseball Development, where he leads a group that provides analytics and decision support tools to all other departments of Baseball Operations.

He joined the Cardinals in 2012 as a Baseball Development Assistant where he focused on creating and improving data workflows and models to predict player performance, as well as contextualizing the increasingly complex and diverse information available to MLB clubs and players.

Sorensen, 31, is a native of Apple Valley, Minn. He earned a BA in Mathematics from Lawrence University before spending two years as an engineer in Healthcare IT and moving to Indiana University where he was a PhD candidate in Music Informatics before leaving to join the Cardinals with a MS in Informatics.

Sorensen lives in St. Louis with his wife, Andrea.

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE

Robert Butler is in his third season in Major League Baseball with the St. Louis Cardinals. As the Director of Performance, Dr. Butler oversees player training and care for the St. Louis Cardinals organization and all affiliates.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, he served as an Assistant Professor and Associate Director of the Michael W. Krzyzewski Human Performance Laboratory at Duke University for 5-1/2 years. A native of Wilmington, Del., Butler graduated from Marietta College where he earned his Bachelor's in Biology, Springfield College where he earned his M.S. in Biomechanics and Movement Science, and the University of Delaware where he earned his Ph.D. in Biomechanics. Following his doctoral training, he completed a post-doc at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and also completed his Doctorate in Physical Therapy at the University of Evansville.

Butler (41) and his wife, Sarah, and children Madeline (10), Emelia (8) and Greyson (4), and dog, Blue, reside in Jupiter, Fla.

MATT SLATER
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM, PLAYER PROCUREMENT

Matt Slater joined the Cardinals in 2007 and was named Special Assistant to the General Manager, Player Procurement in December 2017.

He is in his 28th year in Major League Baseball where over the course of his career, he has helped build division winners and playoff teams in Baltimore, Los Angeles and St. Louis. In his current role as senior talent evaluator, Slater works hand in hand with the General Manager in all player acquisitions including Major League, minor league, amateur draft and international talent. Furthermore, he aids in contract negotiations and roster composition. For the past 10 years, Matt has served as a consultant to the Orix Buffaloes Baseball Club of Japan's Nippon Professional Baseball league. In addition, Slater continues to push the Cardinal organization forward in the emerging player procurement markets of Asia and Cuba.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Slater served in various management capacities for the Los Angeles Dodgers for nine years, including Director of Scouting Operations, Director of Baseball Operations and Director of Professional Scouting. With the Dodgers, he oversaw scouting operations while also being involved with contract negotiations, arbitration and roster management. He worked with the Baltimore Orioles from 1995-98 as the Administrator of Scouting. Slater got his start in professional baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers when he was 19 years old. Beginning in 1991, he served as the Brewers' Scouting and Player Development Assistant.

A native of Fort Wayne, Ind., Slater graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis. in 1993, with a degree in Business Administration – Organizational Management, and holds a law degree from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, Calif. He serves on the board of directors for Independence Center, a non-profit mental health facility in St. Louis. He resides in Chesterfield with his wife, Thomasine, and their three children, Brandon (17), Madison (14) and Jacob (14).

ADAM OLSEN
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Adam begins his third season as Head Athletic Trainer of the St. Louis Cardinals after completing six seasons as their Assistant Athletic Trainer/Physical Therapist.

Prior to his time in St. Louis, he served for four seasons as the Medical/Rehab Coordinator for the Cardinals out of their Spring Training Complex in Jupiter, Florida.

Olsen is a native of Green Bay, Wisconsin and is a graduate of Auburn University where he earned his Athletic Training Certification. Olsen worked as an athletic trainer for Disney's Wide World of Sports and Wildwood High School in the Orlando area before returning to school for his Master's in Physical Therapy from The University of Wisconsin – Madison. Following graduation, Olsen completed a post-professional Sports Physical Therapy Fellowship at Champion Sports Medicine and the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI) under the direction of Dr. James Andrews and Kevin E. Wilk in Birmingham, Alabama.

Olsen, 40, and his wife, Amy, reside in St. Louis with their daughters, Annabelle Frances (8) and Piper James (3), and their dog Bailey.

CHRIS CONROY
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris is entering his seventh season with the St Louis Cardinals major league staff, after 13 years in their minor league system.

Chris spent time with five different affiliates, including the Memphis Redbirds, where he spent seven seasons. During his minor league career, Chris was awarded the Eastern League Athletic Trainer of the Year, as well as the Pacific Coast League Athletic Trainer of the Year.

Along with being a certified athletic trainer, he is a certified strength and conditioning specialist, a performance enhancement specialist, a corrective exercise specialist, and is currently working on advanced SFMA/FMS based treatment paradigms.

Born an Irish citizen, Chris (41) was naturalized as a United States Citizen on July 3, 2010. He and his wife Kristi, and two daughters Madelyn, and Cecelia reside in St Louis.

JEREMY CLIPPERTON
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremy is entering his third season with the Cardinals Major League staff, after serving four seasons with the Memphis Redbirds (AAA).

Before joining the Cardinals organization in 2012, Jeremy spent 11 years in the Seattle Mariners organization, including two in the PCL with the Triple-A Tacoma Rainiers. He also spent time at four other affiliates in the Seattle Mariner farm system and had one year (2001) in the Northwest League with the Spokane Indians in the Kansas City Royals Organization.

The Iowa native is a two-time award recipient, recognized by the Midwest League in 2006 and again in 2008 as the Minor League Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Athletic Trainers Society, the highest Minor League award as the top athletic trainer in all of the Minor Leagues.

He was also named the Southern League Trainer of the Year in 2008. Jeremy, his wife Jessica, and son Calvin, reside in St Louis Hills.

THOMAS KNOX
PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Thomas Knox is in his third season with the Cardinals as Major League Physical Therapist, joining the team after completing three seasons as Director of Player Performance and Rehabilitation for the NBA Washington Wizards.

Knox received a BS in Exercise Science in 2006 and Doctorate of Physical Therapy in 2009 from the University of Evansville. He completed a post-graduate residency in sports physical therapy through ProRehab in Evansville, Ind. Knox worked for EXOS (formerly Athletes' Performance) for three years as a performance specialist and physical therapist in Frisco, Texas and Gulf Breeze, Fla., whose clientele included professional athletes and members of the military special operation groups.

Knox, is a Board Certified Sports Clinical Specialist, a certified strength and conditioning specialist, certified in Functional Movement Systems and Kinetacore Dry Needling.

Born and raised in nearby Woodlawn, Ill., Knox currently resides in St. Louis.

PETE PRINZI
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Pete Prinzi is in his 19th season at the Major League level for the Cardinals and his 22nd year in the Cardinals system overall. He is a registered strength and conditioning coach with distinction through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was recognized in 2011 as the Strength Coach of the Year by Major League Baseball. From 1997-99, he was the organization's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prinzi, 48, graduated from Florida State University where he played football for the Seminoles. After playing professionally for three seasons (1991-93) in the European Football League, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant strength coach from 1994 through 1996.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Prinzi resides in St. Louis with his wife, Ellen, and their two children: Luke (6) and Samantha (5).

JASON SHUTT
PERFORMANCE SPECIALIST & PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Jason Shutt begins his third season as a Performance Specialist with the St. Louis Cardinals and his second season in St. Louis with the Major League club. In 2016, Shutt was based out of the Cardinals Complex in Jupiter, Fla.

In his role as Performance Specialist, Shutt seeks to optimize player readiness, durability and physical performance. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he consulted with professional and Olympic athletes while at the Michael Krzyzewski Human Performance Laboratory at Duke University.

CARDINALS MEDICAL TEAM

St. Louis based Mercy is entering its sixth year as the team's official medical provider. Mercy manages the team's orthopedic and sports medicine needs, as well as providing other medical services for the team, the Cardinals organization and front office.

2018 OFFICIAL MEDIA GUIDE

MANAGER, COACHES & PLAYERS

MICHAEL (MIKE) SCOTT MATHENY (22)

Mike Matheny was named the 49th manager in St. Louis Cardinals franchise history on November 14, 2011. Matheny, 47, is in his seventh season as a manager at the professional level. He served as a Special Assistant in Player Development for the Cardinals prior to his being named manager. Matheny agreed to a three-year contract extension on November 3, 2016, which keeps the Redbirds manager under contract through the 2020 season.

In just six seasons as manager of the Cardinals, Matheny has compiled a 544-428 career record, tops in the National League since his debut season in 2012. Matheny in 2017 became the first Cardinals manager to post six consecutive winning seasons to begin his career and just the 2nd ever to do so for the Redbirds, joining Tony La Russa (2000-06).

Matheny ranks 5th all-time in wins (544) among Cardinals managers and on July 1, 2017, he became the 2nd fastest to 500 career wins as a Cardinals manager, doing so in his 890th career decision. Hall of Fame Cardinals Manager Billy Southworth reached his 500th Cardinals' win in his 766th decision.

Matheny's teams reached the postseason in each of his first four seasons at the helm, securing a Wild Card spot in 2012, Central Division titles in 2013, 2014 and 2015 and a National League Championship in 2013. He has already managed 43 postseason games, as the team fell one win short of making it to the World Series in 2012 and faced Boston in the 2013 World Series, finishing just two wins shy of the Championship. In 2014, Matheny was the manager for the National League All-Star team in Minneapolis, Minn.

Matheny is the only manager to lead his team to the postseason in each of his first four seasons and his 43 postseason games are tops in the majors over his first six seasons (2012-17). In 2015, Matheny piloted an injury-riddled Cardinals team to a Major League-best 100 wins; the ninth 100-win season in franchise history, including a Busch Stadium III record 55 home wins. Since 2012, Matheny has won 21 postseason games, ranking second in N.L. to Bruce Bochy (25) of the Giants.

In his first year at the helm in 2012, Matheny guided the Cardinals to the National League Championship round of the playoffs, having captured a Wild Card berth on the next-to-last day of the regular season. Mike became the first rookie manager to lead the Cardinals to the postseason since Eddie Dyer led the Redbirds to a World Championship win over Boston in 1946.

When he was named to the post at age 41, Matheny became the youngest active manager in the majors and the youngest Cardinals manager since Jack Krol, who was also 41 when he managed the team in 1978. Matheny joined notables such as Red Schoendienst, Joe Torre, Ken Boyer, Frank Frisch and Rogers Hornsby amongst Cardinals players who later served as the team's manager.

A veteran of 13 seasons in the majors, Matheny was drafted out of the University of Michigan by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 8th round of the 1991 draft. He made his Major League debut with the Brewers in 1994 and spent five seasons (1994-98) with Milwaukee before signing a free-agent contract with the Toronto Blue Jays in 1999. Following his release by the Blue Jays, Matheny signed a free-agent contract with the Cardinals on December 16, 1999 and went on to spend five seasons with the Cardinals from 2000-04, earning trips to the postseason in four of those five seasons, including a National League Championship in 2004. As a Cardinal, Matheny appeared in 611 games at catcher, logging 4,938.1 innings while committing just 14 errors.

The four-time (2000, 2003-05) Rawlings Gold Glove recipient holds the Major League catching record for consecutive errorless games (252) and at one time held the mark for consecutive errorless chances (1,565) before it was broken by Mike Redmond. He posted a lifetime batting mark of .239 with 67 home runs and 443 RBI in 1,305 games played in a career that was cut short due to complications from repeated concussions. Matheny signed with San Francisco as a free-agent prior to the 2005 season and he spent two seasons with the Giants before playing his final game on May 31, 2006. In his first season with the Giants, Matheny set the team record for fielding pct. (.9988) by a catcher, came within two of the team mark (36) for doubles by a catcher and was voted by his teammates as the recipient of the "Willie Mac Award" for being the most inspirational player on the team.

In 2002, Matheny served as an inspirational leader for the Cardinals, helping the team to cope with the shocking death of pitcher Darryl Kile while still reaching the National League Championship Series. Matheny was voted by his teammates as the first recipient of the "Darryl Kile Award" in 2003 - an award that goes annually to the Cardinals player who best demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day.

Matheny has been a tireless worker in the community, organizing and creating the "Catch-22" charity and in 2005, his group saw the opening of the "Catch 22 Miracle Field" at Chesterfield Valley Athletic Complex, designed and constructed to allow children of all abilities to experience the thrill of playing baseball.

In February of 2015, Matheny published a book titled "The Matheny Manifesto", which is about coaching youth baseball with the philosophy about respect, ownership, self-motivation and no-nonsense sportsmanship.

Matheny (pronounced muh-THEE-nee) was born on September 22, 1970 in Reynoldsburg, Ohio, and graduated from Reynoldsburg High School in 1988, where he was a team captain for both the baseball and football teams. He was a member of the Connie Mack National Championship team in 1989 and attended the University of Michigan, where he was co-captain of the Wolverines' baseball team. Mike's wife, Kristin, was also a varsity athlete at Michigan, playing field hockey. The couple reside in St. Louis and have five children: daughter Katie (23) and four sons, Tate (24), Luke (21), Jacob (20) and Blaise (17) and one grandson (Ryker James). His son, Tate, played baseball at Missouri State University, and was drafted by the Boston Red Sox in 2015. His daughter, Katie, played women's ice hockey at The Ohio State University and sons, Luke (Oklahoma State) and Jacob (Missouri) have also played collegiate baseball.

BRYAN EVERSGERD (56)
BULLPEN COACH

Bryan Eversgerd is in his first season as Bullpen Coach on Mike Matheny's staff after spending the past five seasons (2013-17) as the pitching coach for Memphis (AAA).

Eversgerd's Memphis staff led the Pacific Coast League with a 3.77 ERA in 2017 while winning the league championship. The Redbirds' 3.77 ERA was the only sub-4.00 ERA in the PCL last season.

Prior to his stint at Memphis, Eversgerd spent two seasons (2011-12) in Springfield (AA) as pitching coach for the Double-A Cardinals. While in Springfield, Eversgerd's 2012 staff registered a 3.83 team ERA and surrendered the second fewest hits en route to the Texas League Championship. The staff went on to hurl a postseason best 2.48 ERA over nine games in the Texas League playoffs. Eversgerd was awarded the George Kissell Award in 2012 for his efforts as voted on by his peers among the Cardinals minor league coaching staffs.

Eversgerd has been the pitching coach for three Cardinals Minor League Pitchers-of-the-Year in Jack Flaherty (2017) and former Cardinals hurlers Shelby Miller (2011) and Seth Maness (2012). In 2013, Eversgerd was the pitching coach for 2013 National League Championship Series MVP Michael Wacha, who spent the majority of the year in Memphis and represented the Redbirds at the Triple-A All-Star Game.

His coaching tenure began at the Cardinals' Carolina League affiliate in 2001 at Potomac, before taking a two-year hiatus and returning as pitching coach for Peoria in the Midwest League. He remained in the Midwest League at Peoria and Quad Cities from 2004-07 before joining Double-A Springfield from 2008-09 and a year later at High-A Palm Beach in 2010.

Eversgerd began his playing career with the Cardinals, signing as a non-drafted free agent on June 14, 1989. He pitched a scoreless inning of relief in his Major League debut for the Cardinals on April 26, 1994, and picked up his first big-league win in his only Major League start on May 20, 1994 at Florida. The left-hander also pitched for Montreal and Texas before returning to St. Louis from 1998 to 2000.

Eversgerd, 49, graduated from Carlyle (Ill.) High School in 1987, playing college baseball at Kaskaskia Community College and leading the team to the 1989 sectional championship. He resides in Hoffman, Ill., with his wife, Lisa, daughter, Kristen (20) and son, Jacob (18).

JOHN STEVEN MABRY (47)
HITTING COACH

John Mabry is beginning his sixth year as the team's hitting coach after being named to that position on November 5, 2012. He was assistant hitting coach to Mark McGwire during the 2012 campaign. The duo helped guide a Cardinals offense that led the league in 2012 in both runs scored and on-base pct., while finishing a close second in batting average. In 2013, the Cardinals batted .330 with runners in scoring position, the top mark in the majors dating to 1974 and in 2016, the Cardinals hit an N.L.-high 225 home runs, including a MLB single-season record 17 pinch hit homers.

Mabry, 47, was drafted by St. Louis in the sixth round of the June 1991 draft and played 14 seasons in the majors, including three stints with the Cardinals. He made his Major League debut in 1994 and put up some of his best offensive numbers with the Cardinals from 1995 - 1998. He hit a career high .307 in 1995 and during the 1996 season played in a career high 151 games, hitting .297 with a career high 161 hits, collected 13 homers and 74 RBI as the Cardinals advanced to the NLCS. In addition to playing with the Cardinals, his Major League career included playing time with eight Major League teams and ended in 2007 with the Colorado Rockies. Mabry hit for a "natural" cycle as a member of the Cardinals on May 18, 1996 at Colorado's Coors Field.

Before joining the Cardinals staff as a coach, Mabry assisted the team in various community relations initiatives, including the team's "Doin' it Right" school program from 2010-2011. A native of Delaware, he graduated in 1988 from Bohemia Manor (Md.) High School where he played football, baseball and basketball; and was drafted out of West Chester (Pa.) University. Mabry was named the Cardinals Rookie of the Year for 1995 by the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA. He and his wife, Ann, make their home in St. Louis with their four children: J.T., Danielle, Nicole and Samantha.

MICHAEL (MIKE) AUSLEY MADDUX (31)
PITCHING COACH

Mike Maddux is entering his first season as the Cardinals pitching coach after spending the past two seasons (2016-17) serving in that role for the Washington Nationals.

In his two seasons with the Nationals, their pitchers posted a 3.69 ERA, including a 3.51 mark in 2016 that ranked 2nd in MLB. His starting staff struck out an NL single-season record 1,012 batters last year, surpassing their mark of 987 in 2016 . In 2016, the Nationals relievers posted the best bullpen ERA in MLB at 3.35.

Maddux was also integral in the coaching of back-to-back National League Cy Young Award winner Max Scherzer the past two seasons.

Maddux, 56, came to Washington from the Texas Rangers where the Rangers had earned four postseason berths. From 2010-13, the Rangers were one of just five clubs (along with ATL, STL, OAK, and TB) to post four consecutive sub-4.00 team ERAs, accomplishing that feat for just the second time in Rangers history (six straight, 1974-79). Prior to Maddux's arrival, the Rangers had not posted an ERA lower than 4.00 since 1990. During his first five seasons with Texas (2009-13), their 3.94 team ERA was Texas' lowest ERA over a five-year span since 1981-85 (3.92) and in 2014, his staff ranked second in the American league with 17 shutouts, second-most in Texas history.

Maddux joined Texas after six years (2003-08) with the Brewers as pitching coach where he oversaw a Brewers staff that ranked second in the NL with a 3.85 ERA in 2008, the lowest mark by a Milwaukee club in 16 years, en-route to securing the Brewers' first postseason berth in 26 years. Maddux served as the pitching coach for Houston's Double-A Round Rock from 2000-02.

Maddux enjoyed a 15-year Major League playing career, going 39-37 with a 4.05 ERA in 472 games (48 starts) with Philadelphia (1986-89), Los Angeles (1990, 1999), San Diego (1991-92), New York Mets (1993-94), Pittsburgh (1995), Boston (1995-96), Seattle (1997), Montreal (1998-99), and Houston (2000). The right-hander appeared in the postseason with Boston in 1995, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings in two appearances vs. CLE in the American League Division Series.

Mike is the older brother of 2014 National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee Greg Maddux. He played three years at the University of Texas-El Paso and graduated from Rancho (NV) High School in 1979. Mike and his wife, Lise, and daughters, Makayla and Lexie, reside in Westlake, TX. Maddux is an avid hunter, golfer, and fisherman.

OLIVER "OLLIE" J. MARMOL (37)
FIRST-BASE COACH

Oliver "Ollie" Marmol is entering his second season as the Cardinals First Base Coach and as a member of the team's Major League coaching staff. In 2016, Marmol completed his second season as manager at Palm Beach and sixth year managing in the Cardinals organization. He piloted his teams to the postseason in four of his five years managing in the minor leagues.

In 2015, his first season managing at Palm Beach, the Cardinals reached the postseason for the first time since 2008, winning the Florida State League South Division second half before being eliminated in the first round. The last time Palm Beach was in the FSL postseason, Marmol was playing second base for the squad.

In 2014, Marmol led the State College team to the New York-Penn League Championship, defeating Hudson Valley in two straight games when facing elimination, then defeated Tri-City for the crown. The Spikes posted 48 wins for the second consecutive season, a year after Marmol led State College to the best record in the New York-Penn League at 48-27. He was awarded the 2013 George Kissell Award as voted on by his coaching peers in the Cardinals organization.

The former Cardinals minor league infielder has skippered his teams to a combined 268-225 record (.544), averaging 45 wins per season during his years with short-season clubs. He led the 2012 Johnson City squad to a 39-28 record and a playoff appearance in his first season as a manager. Marmol began his coaching career in 2011 as the hitting coach at the Gulf Coast League level under manager Steve Turco.

Marmol spent four years playing in the Cardinals system, finishing his career with the Palm Beach Cardinals in 2010. Marmol was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2004 out of Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., but decided to forego professional ball to attend college, where he batted .327 over three seasons at the College of Charleston. He was drafted out of college in the sixth round of the 2007 June First-Year Player Draft by St. Louis.

WILLIE DEAN MCGEE (51)
COACH

Willie McGee is joining the Cardinals Major League coaching staff for the first time in 2018 and will be responsible for a variety of areas including outfield play, base running and hitting. McGee has spent the past several seasons serving as a Special Assistant to the GM, assisting with instruction at both the Major and Minor League levels.

McGee, 59, is a decorated member of the Cardinals organization, a beloved figure among Cardinals fans and a member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame (inducted in 2014).

McGee, who came to the Cardinals organization in October of 1981 in a trade with the New York Yankees for pitcher Bob Sykes, emerged on the national scene in 1982 when he starred during the World Series with his spectacular catches and a pair of key homers that helped the Redbirds to their first World Championship since 1967.

As a key member of the Redbirds during the "Whitey Ball" era, McGee helped the Cardinals to two additional World Series appearances in 1985 and 1987 and in 1985 he became the first Cardinal voted the National League's Most Valuable Player since 1979 (Keith Hernandez), leading the Senior Circuit with his .353 batting average, 216 hits and 18 triples. His .353 batting mark and 216 hits from 1985 still stand as the Cardinals single-season records for a switch-hitter.

A four-time All-Star (1983, 1985, 1987, 1988), the fleet-footed McGee posted a career batting mark of .295 with 352 steals and 94 triples in 18 seasons with St. Louis (1981-90 & 1996-99), Oakland (1990), San Francisco (1991-94) and Boston (1995). He currently ranks among Cardinals all-time top-10 leaders in stolen bases (301-4th), triples (83-7th) and pinch-hits (59-3rd).

In July of 1990, McGee was traded to the Oakland Athletics and helped them to the American League Championship. That year he became the first player in Major League history to win a batting title (.335) in one league after having been traded to a team in the other league. After stints in San Francisco and Boston, Willie returned to St. Louis in 1996 and helped the Cardinals to the N.L. Central title before retiring after the 1999 season.

McGee won Rawlings Gold Glove awards for defensive excellence in 1983, 1985 and 1986 and was a National League Silver Slugger recipient in 1985.

A 1976 graduate of Harry Ellis High School in Richmond, Calif., McGee and his wife, Vivian, have five children, Nanuashika, Jessica, Whitney, Virginia, William, and eight grandchildren.

WILLIAM (BILL) RICHARD MUELLER (43)
ASSISTANT HITTING COACH

Bill Mueller is in his fourth season as a member of the Cardinals coaching staff and returns in his Assistant Hitting Coach role for a second season after serving as the team's First Base Coach in 2016. Prior to joining the Cardinals, Mueller served as the Chicago Cubs hitting coach in 2014.

This is the third coaching assignment for Mueller, who served as interim hitting coach with the Los Angeles Dodgers during the 2007 season. He also worked in the front office of the Dodgers organization as a special assistant to the general manager from 2008-13.

The switch-hitting infielder was drafted in the 15th round of the 1993 draft by the San Francisco Giants and made his Major League debut for the Giants in 1996.

He played 11 seasons with four different organizations starting with the Giants (1996-2000, 2002), Cubs (2001-02), Red Sox (2003-05) and Dodgers (2006).

Mueller won the 2003 American League batting title with a .326 average. A season later, Mueller was a member of the 2004 World Champion Red Sox club which brought the city its first baseball championship in 86 years by beating the Cardinals. Mueller batted .429 (6-14) for the Red Sox in the 2004 World Series.

Over his playing career, Mueller played in the postseason five times, twice with the Giants in 1997 and 2000 and with the Red Sox from 2003-05, totaling 36 postseason games with a .234 batting average.

Mueller finished his career with a .291 batting average over 1,216 games, smacking 85 home runs with 493 RBI. His .372 on-base percentage as a third baseman ranks 6th since his debut in 1996, trailing only Miguel Cabrera, Chipper Jones, Alex Rodriguez, Ken Caminiti and David Wright.

Mueller,47, is a native of St. Louis who attended and graduated from DeSmet Jesuit High School in Creve Coeur, before going on to play college baseball at Missouri State University. He and his wife Amy have three children, Lexi, Tucker and Dawson. His name is pronounced: MILL-er.

JOSÉ MANUEL OQUENDO (11)
THIRD-BASE COACH

Jose Oquendo returns to Mike Matheny's coaching staff in 2018 after taking a medical leave of absence for knee surgery prior to the 2016 season. Oquendo spent the 2017 season serving as a special assistant to John Mozeliak and assisting Cardinals minor league players.

Oquendo, who in 2018 will be entering his 17th season as the Cardinals third-base coach, is the longest tenured coach on the Cardinals big-league staff. He joined the club's major league staff in 1999 as bench coach. Upon ending his playing career, he was a field instructor in the Cardinals farm system in 1997 before managing the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate to a 34-41 finish in 1998.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season Major League records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

A native of Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, Oquendo, 54, now makes his home in Stuart, Fla., with his wife, Zenaida, their four children, and granddaughter, Gabriela. He was voted top utility man on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. Oquendo managed the Puerto Rican team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 and again in 2009 and was the manager of the victorious World Team during the MLB Futures Game that was played during the 2009 All-Star Week in St. Louis.

MICHAEL (MIKE) SHILDT (83)
BENCH COACH

Mike Shildt is entering his second season as a member of the Cardinals Major League coaching staff and will be entering his first season as the team's bench coach. Shildt began the 2017 season as quality control coach before taking over as third-base coach in June.

Shildt has logged eight seasons as a manager in the Cardinals organization, the most recent at the triple-A level with the Memphis Redbirds (2015-16). He has compiled a career managerial record of 471-432 (.522) over his eight seasons, winning league championships in each of his three career playoff appearances.

Shildt served as a coach for the Pacific Coast League All-Star team in 2016 during the Triple-A All-Star Game that was held at BB&T Ballpark in his hometown of Charlotte, N.C.

Sixteen of his players off the Memphis roster made their Major League debuts during the 2015 and 2016 seasons. Shildt won his first league championship at Johnson City in the Appalachian League in 2010 and followed it up with another title in 2011. In his first season at double-A Springfield (2012), Shildt led the Cardinals to a team-record 77 wins and their first Texas League Championship defeating Frisco 3-1 after knocking off Tulsa 3-2 in the opening round. This marked his third consecutive title in his fourth year of managing in the minor leagues.

In 2011, Shildt's Johnson City team set a short-season franchise record with 45 wins, just a year after tying the previous mark of 42. While at Johnson City, Shildt compiled a 124-77 (.617) record over three seasons, averaging 41 wins per season and guided the team to their first championship since 1976. In his first year at the helm of Johnson City (2009), he led the squad to their best record in 13 years (37-30), a year removed from serving as the hitting coach for the squad in 2008.

Shildt began every season from 2004-07 serving as an area scout and player development instructor before moving on to coach for a Cardinals short-season team, first as hitting coach at New Jersey in 2004-05, bench coach in State College in 2006 and position coach for Batavia in 2007.

Shildt earned the George Kissell Award in 2010 after his success at Johnson City as well as serving as the Cardinals Minor League Field and Spring Training Coordinator, a position he held from 2008-11. Shildt managed the Salt River Rafters of the Arizona Fall League to a 19-12 record in 2013, winning their final seven games, and finishing a half-game back of first place in the East Division.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, from 1999-2003, Shildt was an associate scout for the MLB Scouting Bureau and was head varsity coach at West Charlotte High School from 1994-96.

Shildt has five years of collegiate coaching under his belt, working as the hitting coach and recruiting coordinator at both UNC-Charlotte and UNC-Asheville.

Shildt, 49, is a 1991 graduate of UNC-Asheville with a degree in business and currently resides in Matthews, N.C. He was a three-year letterwinner on the Bulldogs baseball team and grew up working for the Orioles double-A team in Charlotte with Cal Ripken, Jr., and Eddie Murray, performing clubhouse detail and working the scoreboard. He is also co-director of a Charlotte-based non-profit organization, Baseball for Life.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock was named a special instructor for the Cardinals on Dec. 9, 1994, to assist with base running and outfield play during spring training.

Brock is the National League career leader with 938 stolen bases (second to Rickey Henderson's 1,406 in baseball history), including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He swiped 50 or more bases in 12 straight seasons (1965-76), establishing a major league record, and led the league on eight occasions. In 1967, he became the first player in baseball history with 20 home runs and 50 stolen bases in a season (21 homers, 52 steals). Brock's 3,023 career hits rank 27th on baseball's all-time list through 2017. He was a six-time N.L. All-Star.

Brock played for the Cardinals from 1964 to 1979 after being acquired in a trade with the Chicago Cubs. He was the Redbirds' offensive catalyst in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series with a .391 batting average that ranks as the third-best all-time. Brock holds the Fall Classic record for stolen bases in a single series (7 in both 1967 and 1968), while sharing the mark with 14 career steals.

In 1978, it was announced that the N.L. annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

Upon the conclusion of his playing days, Brock's uniform No. 20 was retired by the Cardinals. He was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1985 and an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Brock was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Bob Gibson, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

Throughout the 2016 season, the Cardinals teamed with St. Louis Mayor Francis Slay and other civic leaders to honor Brock and raise money for children with diabetes. The Cardinals encouraged fans to demonstrate their affection for Brock and celebrate the St. Louis community via social media using the hashtag #STLisLou.

Brock (born June 18, 1939) is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984 and subsequently served as a base-running consultant for the Minnesota Twins (1987), Los Angeles Dodgers (1988) and Montreal Expos (1993), helping all three clubs increase their stolen base total over the previous season.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson is in his 23rd season as special instructor for the Cardinals.

The greatest pitcher – and fiercest competitor – in franchise history, Gibson spent his entire playing career with the Cardinals from 1959 to 1975. He is the Redbirds' career leader with 251 wins and 3,117 strikeouts. Gibson won the National League Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970. He also was named the N.L. Most Valuable Player in 1968 after setting a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. He was a nine-time N.L. All-Star and won nine Gold Glove Awards.

Gibson fired a no-hitter against the Pittsburgh Pirates on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium.

In the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Gibson amassed 92 strikeouts, the second-most in Fall Classic history. His 35 strikeouts against the Detroit Tigers in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as do his 17 strikeouts in Game 1. He is tied for second with seven wins and tied for third with eight complete games.

Gibson's uniform No. 45 was retired by the Cardinals upon the conclusion of his playing days. He was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1981 and an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and voted the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Gibson was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

Gibson (born Nov. 9, 1935) served as pitching coach for the New York Mets in 1981 and the Atlanta Braves from 1982 to 1984 and as bullpen coach for the Cardinals in 1995, all under manager Joe Torre. Gibson and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb. His son, Chris, was signed by the Cardinals in 2008 and spent time in the Cardinals and Los Angeles Dodgers minor league systems.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Red Schoendienst, who serves as senior special assistant to the general manager, is in his 67th season with the Cardinals and 76th in professional baseball. The former player (1945-56, 1961-63), coach (1964, 1979-95), manager (1965-76) and interim manager (1980, 1990) has been in his current role since 1996.

Schoendienst was the second baseman on the Cardinals' 1946 World Championship team, and he piloted the Redbirds to a World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox in 1967 and another National League pennant in 1968. He served as a coach on the 1964 and 1982 World Championship squads.

His 12-year tenure as skipper was the longest in Cardinals history until Tony La Russa surpassed him in 2008. Schoendienst ranks second in franchise annals with 1,041 wins.

A 10-time N.L. All-Star who also played for the New York Giants (1956-57) and Milwaukee Braves (1957-60), Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. Schoendienst amassed 2,449 career hits, including a league-leading 200 in 1957. He either led or tied for the N.L. lead in fielding percentage seven times.

Schoendienst was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996. He was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1987.

The 2015 season marked Schoendienst's 70th in Major League Baseball, and the Cardinals honored the milestone with a season-long celebration that encouraged fans to demonstrate their affection for him via social media using the hashtag #LoveRed2.

Schoendienst (born Feb. 2, 1923) coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978. He was married to the late Mary Schoendienst for 53 years and has four children: Colleen, Cathleen, Eileen and Kevin. During his playing days, Schoendienst competed as a member of the Budweiser national bowling team.

CARDINALS IN THE HALL OF FAME
A total of 48 players, managers and executives with ties to the St. Louis Cardinals organization have earned election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, including 2015 electee John Smoltz, who pitched for the Cardinals in 2009. Sixteen of the 48 spent the majority of their careers in a Cardinals uniform, including Lou Brock, Bob Gibson, Rogers Hornsby, Joe Medwick, Johnny Mize, Stan Musial, Red Schoendienst, Enos Slaughter and Ozzie Smith. For a complete list of St. Louis Cardinals in the Hall of Fame, visit the "Hall of Famers" team pages at www.baseballhall.org.

CAREER NOTES

- Is one of five MLB pitchers since 2009 to make 60 or more relief appearances in at least eight seasons.
- His 623 total appearances over the past eight season rank first among MLB relievers (Tyler Clippard 617, Brad Ziegler 610).
- Has held opposing right-handed batters to a .200 batting average, ranking 5th-lowest among qualifying MLB relievers since his debut in 2009.
- Established a new Major League Holds mark with 40 in 2010, his second season in the majors.
- Sports a 1.08 ERA and 13 strikeouts over 8.1 innings and 10 career postseason appearances with Oakland and Houston.
- Was a member of the 2013 and 2017 Team USA World Baseball Classic Teams. Has not allowed a run or hit in six career appearances in the tournament.
- Earned the save in Team USA's 2-1 win against Japan at Dodger Stadium in the 2017 semi-final game to send the USA to the championship game against Puerto Rico.
- Was originally drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 28th round of the June 2006 First-Year Player Draft before being traded to the San Diego Padres with Mark Worrell for shortstop Khalil Greene in 2008.
- Ranks 3rd in Padres history with 363 appearances trailing only Trevor Hoffman (902) and Craig Lefferts (375).

2017

- Helped the United States win their first World Baseball Classic title making four scoreless relief appearances without allowing a hit and he recorded three saves.
- Was on the Opening Day roster for his ninth consecutive season and was on the active roster all season.
- Made 65 appearances during the regular season, his eighth season (of nine total) when making at least 60 appearances. Joined Tyler Clippard, David Robertson, Brad Ziegler and Fernando Rodney as the only Major League pitchers with eight 60+ appearance seasons since 2009 (Gregerson's debut).
- Finished the season with a 4.57 ERA (31 ER/61.0 IP), his highest ERA in any of his nine career seasons.
- Struck out 70 batters in 61.0 innings (10.33 strikeouts per 9.0 innings). The 70 strikeouts were his most since 2012 (San Diego, 72).
- Enjoyed success away from Minute Maid Park, going 1-1 with a 3.29 ERA (10 ER/27.1 IP) and 34 strikeouts in 27 outings on the road.
- Had three scoreless appearances (April 3-6), before giving up a career-high six runs on five hits in only 0.1 of an inning vs. KC (4/8). Gave up two homers, marking only the third time in his career when allowing two HR in an outing. His ERA on the season not including his six runs allowed on April 8, was 3.71 (25 ER/60.2 IP) with a .242 opponent batting average.
- Following the 4/8 outing, threw eight consecutive scoreless outings (7.1IP) to finish off the month of April.
- Won his first game of the season vs. DET (5/25), despite also taking a blown save.

CAREER NOTES

- Since the award's inception in 2011, has won four of the seven N.L. Rawlings Platinum Glove awards (2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015) that go to the player voted as the best defender at any position in the National League.
- Won eight consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove awards, (2008-15), and is the only Cardinals catcher to win the award more than three times (Mike Matheny-3, Tom Pagnozzi-2).
- Named to the National League All-Star Team on eight occasions, including seven straight years (2009-15, '17).
- Won his first Silver Slugger award following the 2013 season, presented annually by Louisville Slugger to the best offensive player at each position in each league with voting by Major League managers and coaches.
- Enters the 2018 season with 1,730 career hits ranking 10th in Cardinals history.
- Holds Busch Stadium III record with 792 career hits and 150 doubles.
- Is the Cardinals all-time postseason leader in hits (90), singles (70), games played (89) and at-bats (315).
- Ranks 1st all-time among Cardinals catchers in career hits (1,730), doubles (335) and at-bats (6,092).
- Since 2006, leads MLB catchers in hits (1,597). His 16 four-hit games from 2006-17 tie Buster Posey for most amongst all catchers.
- Molina and Adam Wainwright have been a starting battery for 237 career games, the most in Cardinals history and the most for any tandem since Tom Glavine and Javy Lopez had 248 games together for the Braves from 1994-2002 (Elias).
- His 1,730 career hits rank 18th all-time among MLB catchers heading into the 2018 season.
- Since 2005, leads all Major League catchers with a 41.1 caught stealing percentage, 106 double plays and 884 assists (13 seasons total).
- Since 2005, has caught 271 attempted base stealers, ranking 2nd just behind Russell Martin (273).
- His 49 career pick-offs leads all catchers from 2004-17 with the next closest at 19 (Russell Martin).
- Has caught 100+ games in 13 straight seasons (2005-present), the only Major League catcher to do so in that span and matches A.J. Pierzynski (2001-2013) for the longest streak in MLB history. His 13 seasons of 100 or more starts behind the plate are 5th-most in MLB history.
- Has been the starting catcher in 138 team shutout wins during his career, the 7th highest total among all Major League catchers dating to 1913.
- Ranks among MLB all-time catching leaders in innings caught (14th, 14,370.2), games (18th, 1,715), starts (16th, 1,653), putouts (6th, 11,552) and total chances (8th, 12,521).

- Is MLB's 4th toughest catcher to strike out (once every 10.23 PA's) since 2004, and ranks 14th overall among all Major League players during that time span.
- Since 2008, his 365 hits with runners in scoring position ranks 1st among MLB catchers and his .310 BA (365-1177) ranks 2nd (Buster Posey .314, 307-977); his .292 average (162-555) with runners in scoring position and two outs, ranks 2nd.
- Has a career .286 (90-315) postseason batting average with 90 hits and 17 doubles, both of which rank 2nd all-time among catchers, trailing only Jorge Posada (103 hits & 23 doubles).
- His career .326 average (42-129) in the League Championship Series is 2nd among catchers (T. Munson .339), while his 42 hits rank first among catchers (7th overall); his eight LCS doubles rank 2nd among catchers, T5th overall.
- Is one of just seven catchers to record four seasons with a .300+ season batting mark (.305 in 2011; .315 in 2012; .319 in 2013; .307 in 2016), joining Ivan Rodriguez (7 seasons), Mike Piazza (7), Mickey Cochrane (7), Ted Simmons (6) and Bill Dickey (5) (min. 502 plate appearances).
- Made 13 straight Opening Day starts at catcher (2005-17), the most ever by a Redbirds backstop and tying Lou Brock for most consecutive starts at a single position (left field, 1967-79). His 13 consecutive Opening Day starts are 3rd-most in franchise history behind only Stan Musial (18, 1946-1963) and Brock (15, 1965-1979) (Elias).
- Signed a three-year contract extension on April 2, 2017, that runs through 2020.

2016

- Led the Cardinals with a .307 batting average, 38 doubles and 46 multi-hit games. Led the team in batting for the 4th time in his career (2011-13).
- Led all MLB catchers in average, hits (164) and doubles.

- Paced all MLB catchers with a career-high 1,218.1 innings caught. Also set career bests and led MLB backstops in games (146), starts (142), total chances (1175), putouts (1113) and fielding pct (.998).
- His single-season high 146 games caught were the most by a Cardinals receiver since Ted Simmons caught a team single-season record 154 games in 1975.
- Batted .365 (89-244) Post All-Star Break, the 2nd-highest in MLB (Votto, CIN, .408) and highest Cardinals Post All-Star Break average since Albert Pujols (.366) in 2008, while his 89 hits were the most since Willie McGee (112) in 1985.
- Posted team-highs with 46 multi-hit games and 13 three-hit games.
- On 6/15 vs. HOU with Adam Wainwright, passed Bob Gibson and Tim McCarver (197) for the Cardinals all-time lead in games started as batterymates.
- Reached base safely in a career-high 24 straight games 7/8-8/11, batting .379 with a .438 OBP. It was the 2nd-longest on base streak by a Cardinals player in 2016 (Aledmys Diaz, 26) and the longest by a Cardinals catcher since Gene Tenace reached in 35 straight over a two season (1981-82) period.
- Posted a career-high 16-game hitting streak 7/8-8/2, batting .367 during the stretch.
- Doubled in eight straight games 7/24-8/2, tying the MLB modern era record with Derrek Lee (2007). The eight-game streak bested his own seven-game double stretch (6/4-6/12/13) and surpassing Joe "Ducky" Medwick who had a 7-game stretch 7/5-14/1936.
- Hit safely in 17 of the last 18 games (.431, 28-65) to end the season.

2015

- Selected by players as a National League All-Star, his 7th-straight season selected; entered the game as catcher in the 6th and caught three innings.
- Awarded his 8th consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove award.
- Received his 4th Platinum Glove, given to the best defensive player in the National League at any position.
- His 2.79 catcher's ERA topped all MLB catchers and was a 1/2 run lower than the next closest (Y. Grandal, LAD 3.35). Was the lowest ERA since Alan Ashby in 1981 (HOU, 2.33).
- Led the N.L. and finished 2nd in the majors with 1,149.2 innings caught (S. Perez, KC 1,192.1 IC).
- His 131 hits as a catcher ranked 1st in the N.L. (2nd MLB).
- Passed Tim McCarver for 25th place on MLB's all-time innings caught list on 7/19 when he caught all 18 innings of a 3-1 loss vs. NYM.
- Collected a team-high 21 August RBI, the most August RBI by a St. Louis catcher since Ted Simmons (21, 1980).
- Missed the last 13 games of the regular season after suffering a ligament tear in his left thumb; the injury occurred on a putout at the plate in the bottom of the 8th inning at CHI on 9/20.
- Underwent surgery in September for a partially torn left thumb ligament; required a second surgery December 15.
- Rated by poll of Major League managers in Baseball America as the "Best Hit-and-Run Artist" (tied with M. Prado) and the "Best Defensive Catcher."

- His 135 hits were the most by a STL catcher since Ted Simmons had 150 in 1980.
- Became the first Cards catcher since Simmons in 1980 to post a batting average of .300 or better (.304), the only two STL catchers to have BA's over .300 as a catcher (min. 450 plate apps.).
- Led team and ranked 6th in the NL with a .340 (34-100) batting average with runners in scoring position.
- His 28 total strikeouts as catcher were the fewest by STL backstop since Simmons fanned just 20 times in 1976 and the 2nd fewest by an MLB backstop since 1993 (A.J. Pierzynski 26K's for SF in 2004) (min. 450 PA's).
- Led MLB with seven pick-offs.
- Removed from field on stretcher after home-plate collision in the 9th on 6/15 vs. PHI; held on to the ball after tag to help STL to win. Suffered a concussion and missed three games.

- Caught 23 of 46 (50%) opponents attempting to steal, tops in the majors.
- Missed most of June with a non-displaced fracture in his left wrist suffered on 5/29 at COL. Came out of the game mid-4th with the injury which occurred when he took a foul tip off his wrist in the third inning during M. Holliday's at-bat. Was activated from the disabled list on 6/28 after missing 26 games.
- His season ended a week early on 9/24 after surgery on his right knee, a medial menisectomy, performed by Dr. George Paletta.
- Had then career-high 15 game hit-streak (.373 BA) 5/1-24, the longest by a Cards catcher since 1993 (Erik Pappas: 16-games, 5/14-6/5).
- Had first career multi-HR game 8/16 at MIL.
- Signed a 4-year contract extension with a club option for 2012 on January 21, 2008.

2006

- Had seven pickoffs on the season. Picked Brian Giles off first base to end the game on 5/28 at SD - it had been almost four years since a major league game ended with a catcher's pickoff [Ivan Rodriguez (TEX) picked off R. Hidalgo (HOU) on 6/14/02].
- Went 26-for-63 (41%) on opponent stolen base attempts and led NL catchers with 79 assists.

2006 POSTSEASON: Took part in postseason play for third straight season and led the team with 19 hits, 29 total bases, .358 BA and was second with 8 RBI in 16 games played...started all 16 games behind the plate and made just one error as Cardinals pitchers combined for a stellar 2.68 ERA...had hits in all but four postseason games...had an RBI single in Division Series Game 1 at San Diego...picked off Mike Piazza at first to end Padres 1st inning in DS Game 3...singled in his first at-bat of League Championship Series Game 1 vs. New York...recorded three hits and drove in two runs in LCS Game 2...had two hits in LCS Game 4, including solo HR...was one of several NLCS Game 7 heroes for St. Louis, delivering a 2-run HR in the 9th inning off Aaron Heilman to give Cardinals a 3-1 lead...batted .412 (7-17) in the World Series, while hitting safely in all five games...doubled in WS Game 3 vs. Detroit...drove in a run with a double in Game 4 of the WS and walked twice...had three hits and two runs in Series clinching Game 5 win.

- At 22 years of age, became the youngest catcher to start for an N.L. club on Opening Day since Jason Kendall for the Pirates (21 in 1996).
- Shut down opponent's running game, throwing out 17 of 31 runners attempting to steal (55%), and allowed fewest SB's (14) among ML catchers (min. 100 games started, Twins Joe Mauer was next closest with 31 allowed).
- Picked off nine base runners.
- Missed 33 games from 7/8-8/17 after being HBP on his left hand in 7/7 game at ARI that caused a hairline fracture to his 5th metacarpel.

2005 POSTSEASON: Caught the duration of all nine post-season games, helping St. Louis pitchers to a 3.19 ERA...drove in three runs while batting .286...San Diego stole two bases in Game 1 of the Division Series before Molina shut down the Padres running game the rest of the series...had two hits and drove in two in DS Game 3...collected 2 hits in Games 2, 3 and 5 of the League Championship Series vs. Houston...allowed only one HOU stolen base in the series.

2004

- Made MLB debut on 6/3 at PIT after his contract was purchased from Memphis to replace injured catcher Mike Matheny.
- Went 2-4 with a double and run scored in debut and was involved with a play at the plate in the 2nd inning, recording the out when A. Nunez tried to score from second on a single to right; also recorded a caught stealing in the 8th.
- Had first career GWRBI with a bases loaded single in the 9th on 8/7 vs. NY.
- Made two terrific putouts at the plate 8/28 at PIT, including a violent collision with Ty Wigginton.
- Belted his first MLB homer 9/23 at MIL to snap a 2-2 tie.
- Threw out 50% of would be base thieves (8-16) in 51 games played (39 starts).

2004 POSTSEASON: Did not see action in the Cardinals Division Series round, but did start and catch Game 4 of the LCS vs. HOU (1-4 in 6-5 loss)...appeared in three World Series games vs. Boston, including a start in Game 4...pinch hit in Game 1 (0-1) and caught the 9th inning of Game 3.

- Homered in each game of doubleheader at PHI (8/22) becoming the first player in Marlins history to do so since Giancarlo Stanton (9/6/10 at PHI).
- Recorded four multi-home run games (4/11 vs. ATL, 5/8 vs. STL, 7/2 at MIL & 9/22 at ARI); had just one multi-home run game prior to 2017.
- Finished July with 27 RBI, good for 2nd in National League (3rd in MLB); marked new career high for any month and a new Miami team record for July.
- Had a streak of seven straight home games with a multi-hit game snapped vs. WSH (6/21). It tied Dee Gordon (4/26-5/15/2015) for longest multi-hit games streak at home in Marlins history.
- Posted 4th career walk-off RBI (third walk-off hit), a single off Enny Romero to score Dee Gordon in an 8-7 Marlins win vs. WSH (6/19).
- Went 2-for-2 with two homers and six RBIs in the Marlins' 8-4 win vs. ATL (4/11). There have been over 2,000 instances of a player producing at least six RBI in a game since RBI became an official statistic in 1920, but Ozuna was only the ninth player to knock in at least six runs with two-or-fewer official at-bats in a game, and the first to do that in nearly 17 years, since the Padres Bret Boone went 2-for-2 with six RBI against the Astros (6/10/2000).

- Batted .307 with 12 doubles, five triples, 17 home runs and 47 RBI in the first half to earn first career All-Star Game selection.
- Named to the National League All-Star team, started in centerfield due to an injury to Dexter Fowler (CHI). Went 1-for-2 with an RBI single batting 7th.
- Reached base in 36 straight games from April 21-May 29, 4th-longest streak in MLB for the season; tied Hanley Ramirez for 5th-longest on-base streak in Marlins history. Batted .399 (55-138) with eight doubles, four triples, nine home runs, and 23 RBI during streak.
- Final 28 games of his 36-game on-base streak included hitting streaks of 16 and 11 games.
- The 16-game streak, tied for his career-long, ran from April 30 to May 16 and an 11-game streak (5/18-29).
- According to STATS LLC, was just 5th player in Marlins history with back-to-back 10-game hitting streaks (one game played between end of first and start of second).
- In May, led National League in slugging (.705), was 2nd in average (.411), behind Daniel Murphy (.416), and was 5th in on-base percentage (.450).
- Recorded 400th career hit at TB (5/25) in 391st career game.
- According to STATS LLC, among players who began career with Marlins, was sixth-fastest to 400 career hits, behind Edgar Renteria (340 games), Miguel Cabrera (349), Christian Yelich (350), Luis Castillo (367), and Dan Uggla (380).
- Had first career multi-homer game vs. COL (6/20), two solo shots.
- Hit his 23rd home run at ATL (9/14), matching his career high from 2014.
- Hit sixth triple of season vs. WSH (9/19), setting a career high.

2015

- Split 2015 season between Marlins (123 games) and Triple-A New Orleans (33).
- First home run of season came at SF (5/7); was first of three homers on a 10-game road trip to West Coast.
- Batted .321 after 22 games through May 2, after May 3, batted .223 (48-215) over next 56 games, including 0-14 in July, and was optioned to New Orleans (AAA) on July 5.
- Had a hit in 23 of 33 games with New Orleans and was recalled to Miami on August 15.
- Batted .278 (45-162) in 44 games after recall, with 20 runs, 13 doubles, six home runs, and 18 RBI.
- His .996 fielding percentage ranked sixth among NL outfielders.

2014

- His season was cut short due to injury for second straight year after suffering high right ankle sprain vs. WSH (9/21).
- At time of injury, led Majors in HR (15) and RBI (40) in the 7th inning or later; finished season tied with Lucas Duda (NYM) for lead in home runs, and was still leader in RBI.
- HR total in 7th inning or later tied Derrek Lee (2000) for most in Marlins club history.
- Was tied for 12th in National League in home runs (23), and was 10th in RBI (85) when injured; finished season tied for 14th in HR and tied for 11th in RBI.

CAREER NOTES

- Earned 2015 Major League All-Star selection (manager's selection) for the National League.
- Of his 112 career starts, 70 have been 6.0 innings or more and 64 of those have been quality starts.
- His .600 winning percentage (45-30) over the past five seasons (2013-2017) ranks T12th among National League pitchers.
- Including the postseason, is a lifetime 26-12 with a 3.47 ERA in 59 starts (36 quality starts) at Busch Stadium... his .684 home win pct. ranks T11th in the N.L. since 2013.
- In 2015, became the first Cardinals pitcher since Joe Magrane (18 in1989) to win 17 or more games in a season under age 24.
- Named 2013 National League Championship Series MVP throwing 13.2 scoreless innings, allowing seven hits, and striking out 13 for a 2-0 record...pitched opposite Dodgers N.L. Cy Young winner Clayton Kershaw in both starts.
- Joined Livan Hernandez (1997) and Mike Boddicker (1983) as only rookies to have won an LCS MVP award.
- Is one of 20 pitchers in MLB history to record four or more wins in a single postseason and only the third rookie pitcher joining Livan Hernandez (4, 1997) and Francisco Rodriguez (5, 2002), and the only American-born rookie pitcher to win four games in a single postseason.
- Holds the Major League rookie strikeout record for one postseason with 33 in 2013.
- Threw 30.2 innings in the 2013 postseason, marking the most by a rookie in a single postseason since the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela set the mark with 40.2 in 1981.
- Became the first pitcher in Cardinals history to strike out the first nine batters of a game on April 23, 2014 at NYM... also became one of eight MLB pitchers in the last 100 years to strike out 10 batters in a start that lasted 4.0 innings or fewer.
- Also became just the 4th Cardinal to strike out 10 batters in first 4.0 innings, joining Bob Gibson, Steve Carlton, and Pete Vuckovich.
- Named to the 2013 Triple-A Mid-Season All-Star Game and earned the Pacific Coast League's "Top Star" award after retiring all five batters faced in a relief appearance.

2017

- Matched single-season career-high (2015) with 30 starts (165.2 IP) while reaching double-digit wins (12) for the second time in his career. Also established a career best 158 strikeouts, 2nd-most on the club.
- Was one of 12 N.L. pitchers to record a complete game shutout (7/18), scattering three hits, striking out eight and allowing one walk in the 119-pitch (80 strikes) performance vs. the Mets at Citi Field. It marked his 40th career win, first career 9.0 inning effort and first professional shutout (last was in college at Texas A&M, 4/13/12 at Kansas).
- His 7/18 shutout was the Cardinals first complete game shutout on the road since Shelby Miller at Toronto (6/7/14)
- Was one of six N.L. pitchers to record at least two scoreless starts of at least 8.0 innings: 9/10 vs. PIT (8.0 IP) & 7/18 at NYM (9.0 IP). Carlos Martinez led with three.
- Pitched at least 6.0 frames in 18 outings with 15 quality starts (STL was 12-6): 11-3, 2.61 ERA (113.2 IP) 102 strikeouts.
- Allowed only 17 home runs, ranking 3rd-fewest among National League pitchers with 0.92 HR/9 IP.
- His career-high 48.6 ground ball percentage ranked 9th among National League pitchers. Induced 18 ground ball double plays and ranked 7th in the N.L. in GIDP/9.0 (0.98).
- Sported the 9th-lowest ERA (1.95) in team wins (12-0, 15 starts) among N.L. starting pitchers, but had the 7th-highest ERA (6.87) in losses (0-9, 15 starts).
- Limited the oppostion to a .248 average (34-for-137) with runners in scoring position, 16th-lowest in the N.L.
- Recorded career-best 1.20 ERA (30.0 IP/4 ER) and .200 Opp. AVG (22-110) in the first inning (T1st among qualified NL starting pitchers with Colorado's Tyler Anderson). Recorded a 4.64 ERA afterwards (135.2 IP/70 ER).

ACTIVE ERA LEADERS (MIN. 1,500 IP)

Player - Team(s)	ERA	Seasons
Clayton Kershaw - LAD	2.36	2008-17
Madison Bumgarner - SF	3.01	2009-17
Felix Hernandez - SEA	3.20	2005-17
David Price - TB, DET, TOR, BOS	3.22	2008-17
Adam Wainwright - STL	3.29	2005-17

- Has a career .655 home win pct. (78-41), 8th among active National League pitchers. The 78 home wins rank 2nd to Clayton Kershaw (80).
- Ranks 2nd in MLB with 19 complete games since 2010 (Kershaw 25), including a career high five in 2010, 2013 and 2014.
- Since 2010, ranks 14th in ERA (3.35) and 2nd in shutouts (10), 13th in wins (100) despite missing the entire 2011 season to injury and most of 2015.
- Posted a sub-3.00 ERA in 2009 (2.63), 2010 (2.42), 2013 (2.94) & 2014 (2.38).
- Has two 20-win seasons (2010 & 2014) and two 19-win seasons (2009 & 2013).

- Has had three 200+ strikeout seasons (2009, 2010, 2013).
- In 2014, finished 3rd in the National League Cy Young vote after placing 2nd to Clayton Kershaw in 2013. Also finished 2nd in 2010 behind Roy Halladay.
- Finished third in the National League Cy Young vote after the 2009 season, despite receiving the most first-place votes of any player. His finish was just four points shy of teammate Chris Carpenter for 2nd place and 10 behind Cy Young winner Tim Lincecum (SF Giants) for the second-tightest vote in the history of the award.
- Selected as the starting pitcher for the National League in the 2014 All-Star Game in Minnesota. It was his third time selected to the All-Star Game, second appearance in the game (2010) and first as the starting pitcher. He was the first Cardinals pitcher to start the All-Star Game since Chris Carpenter in 2005.
- In his first All-Star Game appearance in 2010 in Anaheim, pitched a perfect 7th and fanned two in the N.L. win. Was named to the 2013 N.L. All-Star team by his peers, but did not pitch.
- He's the first STL pitcher since Steve Carlton to have three seasons with 10 or more road wins (RHP, Bob Gibson-7). Only C.C. Sabathia (5), Bartolo Colon (3), Roy Halladay (3) and David Price (3) have had three or more seasons of 10+ road wins since 2000.
- Winner of the 2009 and 2013 Rawlings Gold Glove awards as voted on by N.L. managers & coaches. Was flawless in his N.L.- leading 61 total chances in 2013 and had 56 errorless chances in 2009. Has committed one error or less in 9 of 10 full seasons (most was 2 in 2007).
- Won his first Louisville Silver Slugger award following the 2017 season in which he led N.L. pitchers with a .262 average with 11 hits,11 RBI (T1st) and 2 home runs.

- Ranked 3rd in the N.L. in double plays induced (27) and 2nd in GDP/9 IP (1.22).
- Ranked 11th among National League pitchers in fewest HR/9 IP (1.00), yet yielded a career-high 22 home runs. Did not allow a home run over a nine-start stretch from 6/3-7/21 (66.2 IP), the longest homerless streak by a N.L. pitcher in 2016.

- Went 5-0 over a seven-start span (4/27-5/28), his five-game win streak tied for the longest by a Cardinal in 2016 (Wacha).
- Allowed seven runs (six earned) over 5.0 IP for a win in STL's 12-10 victory at Angels (5/12), marking the 13th career outing allowing seven or more runs, but first occurance picking up the win (Cards are 2-11). It was also just the 4th time since 1984 a Cardinals starter had allowed seven or more runs and still received the win; since 1931, only teammate Lance Lynn (2013) did so pitching 5.0 innings as well.
- Went 3-1 with a 1.77 ERA (35.2 IP/ 7 ER) in July, ranking 7th in MLB ERA during the month.
- Was one of 18 N.L. pitchers to record a complete game shutout, firing a three-hit shutout (120 pitches) vs. MIA (7/16).
- Posted an 18.0-inning scoreless streak from 7/7-21, the longest by a Cardinals pitcher in 2016.
- Allowed a season-high 26 runs (21 earned) in six August starts (31.0 IP), his most allowed surpassing 24 from August 2014.
- Picked up 14th career win vs. Milwaukee on 9/10 holding the Brewers to a run on six hits in 8.0 innings. His 14 wins over Milwaukee lead all active pitchers and are his most vs. an opponent in his career.
- Led Major League pitchers in RBI (18), doubles (7), extra-base hits (10). Ranked T1st in triples (1), T3rd in home runs (2) and T6th in hits (13).
- Ten of his 13 hits went for extra bases (7 doubles, 1 triple, 2 homers).
- Became first Cards pitcher in franchise history to record four three-RBI games in one season, and the first in MLB since Don Newcombe had four in 1955 (Wes Ferrell, 5, 1931, MLB record). His 18 RBI were most by Cards pitcher since Bob Gibson's 19 in 1965 and 1970.
- Hit a three-run triple in 4/27 outing at ARI, the second three-bagger of his career (last 10/2/09 vs. MIL, Braden Looper).
- Doubled and slugged his 7th career home run vs. PHI (5/2), a three-run shot into Big Mac Land. The last Cards pitcher with a homer, double and 3 RBI in a game was Chris Carpenter at CIN (10/1/2009).
- Recorded an extra base hit in four straight plate appearances (triple, home run, double, double) over three-game period (4/27-5/7) to become the second pitcher since 1900 to record an extra-base hit in four consecutive at-bats (Snake Wiltse, Philadelphia A's, 8/10/1901 vs. the Senators, all in one game). (Elias)
- Hit a pinch-hit, game-winning, two-run double in the 12th inning of STL's extra-inning 9-3 win over PIT at PNC Park (6/10).
- With double on 9/5 at PIT, became first pitcher in modern MLB history to produce extra-bases on nine consecutive hits, passing record owned by current teammate Mike Leake, who recorded extra bases on eight straight hits from 2014-15 (w/ Cincinnati) (Elias).
- While earning a win in his start at COL (9/20), was 2-for-2 at the plate with a double and career-high 4 RBI. Became the 25th pitcher in Cardinals history with 4 or more RBI in a game and the most recent since Jake Westbrook (8/31/2011).

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

The scouting department has employees devoted to seeking baseball talent in four unique areas: professional, college, high school and international. Professional Scouts analyze major and minor league players from other organizations and compile reports for potential trades and signings. Area Scouts live and work within an assigned geographic area of the United States and scout the amatuer ranks for talent. Each area scout is assigned a collegiate conference within their region to analyse and report. Crosscheckers verify top talent from coast to coast.

STUBBY CLAPP — MANAGER

Stubby Clapp enters his second season as the Memphis manager and second season coaching in the Cardinals organization after leading the Redbirds to their third Pacific Coast League championship in 2017. Clapp led the club to a franchise-best 91-50 record, earned the PCL Manager of the Year award and the Baseball America Minor League Manager of the Year award. Additionally, he received the J. Roy Stockton/Bob Broeg Award for outstanding achievement in baseball from the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA.

Prior to returning to Memphis, Clapp spent four seasons as hitting coach in the Blue Jays organization, including the 2015-16 seasons with New Hampshire (AA). From 2013-14, he served as hitting coach for Dunedin (High-A), and was the recipient of the Blue Jays' 2014 Bobby Mattick Award for excellence in Player Development.

Often referred to as the "Mayor of Memphis," Clapp became the first and only Memphis Redbirds player to have his number retired by the team in 2007. Known for his grit and hard play day in and day out, Clapp was beloved by fans for his energy and the backflips he routinely performed when taking the field.

In his Redbirds career, Clapp appeared in a total of 425 games. He sits at the top of the Redbirds' career leaders in walks (222) and triples (19), while also ranking second in runs scored (258) and third in games (425), at-bats (1,556), hits (418), doubles (87), and extra-base hits (128). He was a member of the Redbirds' first PCL Championship team in 2000, where he hit three homers and drove in 11 during the playoffs. Earlier that year, Clapp recorded the first hit in AutoZone Park history, with a single to center, and set the Redbirds' single-season record for triples with eight.

A graduate of Texas Tech University, the Windsor, Ontario, native was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 36th round of the 1996 First-Year Player Draft. He played for Johnson City (R) in 1996, Prince William (A) in 1997 and Arkansas (AA) in 1998 before making his debut with Memphis (AAA) on April 8, 1999 against Calgary at Tim McCarver Stadium.

Clapp made his Major League debut on June 18, 2001 against the Cubs. He appeared in 23 career games for the Cardinals that season, posting a .200 average with two doubles and one RBI.

Clapp played the 2003 season for the Braves' Richmond (AAA), followed by a 2004 campaign that was split between New Hampshire (AA) and Syracuse (AAA) in the Blue Jays organization. Clapp finished his career playing 2005-06 seasons for the Edmonton Cracker-Cats of the independent Northern League.

Following his playing career, Clapp spent 2007-12 as a coach in the Houston Astros organization: three seasons as the hitting coach for Lexington (A), one season as hitting coach for Corpus Christi (AA), and two as manager of Tri-City (SS).

Clapp has represented Canada in numerous international baseball competitions. He recorded a game-winning, bases-loaded single to beat the United States in the first round of the 1999 Pan American Games in Winnipeg. Clapp also played for the Canadian National team in the 2004 Olympics in Athens, 2008 Olympics in Beijing, and the 2006 and 2009 World Baseball Classics. Clapp served as a coach in the 2013 World Baseball Classic and was third base coach for the gold medal-winning Canada national baseball team at the 2015 Pan American Games.

The 45-year-old was the third member of his family to be given the nickname "Stubby," along with his grandfather and father. He and his wife, Chastity, have three children: sons Cooper (aka "Stubby IV") and Cannan, and daughter Crosbie

MARK BUDASKA — HITTING COACH

Budaska returns for his 11th season as the Memphis Redbirds hitting coach. He also served as the St. Louis assistant hitting coach in June 2017 while Bill Mueller was on a leave of absence.

During his 10 years in Memphis (2008-17), Budaska has tutored current Cardinals batters Matt Carpenter, Randal Grichuk, Kolten Wong, Tommy Pham and Paul DeJong, as well as former Cardinals' World Series MVP David Freese, who all posted career minor league years in Memphis before moving on to St. Louis.

Budaska spent three seasons (2010-12) as the hitting and outfield coach for the Tigres de Aragua in the Venezuelan Winter League. The 2011 Tigres won the championship over the Tiburones de La Guaira.

Budaska previously served as hitting coach from 2004-07 at Pawtucket (AAA) in the Boston Red Sox system and had been with the Red Sox since 2002. In 2001, he coached for the Angels' Little Rock (AA) affiliate in the Texas League and saw the Travelers win the Texas League Championship, ranking fourth in the league with a .266 team average. Budaska was a hitting coach and first base coach for a major league team in Taiwan from 1998-2000.

The former switch-hitting outfielder played 10 years in the Oakland organization, including stints in the Majors in 1978 and 1981. He made a cameo as a third base coach for the California Angels in the movie "Talent for the Game."

DERNIER OROZCO — PITCHING COACH

Orozco begins his first season as pitching coach with Memphis and 13th in the Cardinals organization, serving at five different levels of player development.

He previously spent three seasons as pitching coach with Peoria (A), all of which included trips to the Midwest League playoffs, following two seasons with State College (A) in the New York-Penn League.

The Chiefs pitching staff combined for at least 10 shutouts in each of Orozco's three seasons, and the 2015 Peoria squad led the league in strikeouts (1,149) while boasting the league leader in ERA (Matt Pearce, 2.43), wins (Austin Gomber, 15) and strikeouts (Gomber, 140). In 2014, his State College pitching staff ranked second in the league in ERA (2.97) en route to the league championship while posting an outstanding 0.87 ERA over six postseason games, including two shutouts. The 2013 State College squad led the New York-Penn League in ERA (2.80).

Orozco began his time with the Cardinals as a coach in the Venezuelan Summer League from 2006-08 before receiving the title of pitching coach in Venezuela in 2010. He was the pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2009 and 2011.

Orozco played six pro seasons in the Red Sox organization as a right-handed pitcher. He posted a 1.88 ERA in 14 Venezuelan Summer League outings (three starts) in 2002, and went 4-2 over 14 games (29.2 IP) for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox in 2003, his final season.

Orozco, 36, resides in Venezuela in the off-season.

JOHNNY RODRIGUEZ — MANAGER

Rodriguez enters his second season as the manager in Springfield and ninth in the Cardinals organization, after leading Springfield in 2017 to a 77-63 record, which tied the franchise's all-time single-season wins record (2012) and earned a first-place tie for the best overall record in the Texas League North Division.

Rodriguez previously served as manager from 2010-11 at Quad Cities (A), 2012-13 at Palm Beach (High-A), 2014 at Johnson City (R) and 2015-16 at State College (A). Rodriguez has won three league titles in seven years as a manager in the Cardinals organization, his most recent coming in 2016 as State College won the New York-Penn League Championship.

In his first season at State College in 2015, Rodriguez's Spikes posted a 41-35 record narrowly missing the postseason by one game. In 2016, the Spikes boasted the best record in the league at 50-26. In 2014, Johnson City won its third Appalachian League title in five years. In 2011, Rodriguez led Quad Cities to its first Midwest League title since 1991. Rodriguez was the hitting coach at Johnson City before moving to his managerial posts.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez was the hitting coach from 2007-08 at Jamestown (SS) as a member of the Florida Marlins organization and had been with the Marlins from 2002-08, beginning as manager of the Jamestown affiliate.

Rodriguez's professional career spans more than 30 years, starting out in the New York Yankees organization for 17 years before moving on to the Expos as a hitting coach in 2000-01. He gained prior coaching experience at the college level at the University of Miami (Fla.), Miami-Dade Community College and at the nationally prominent high school baseball program at Westminster Christian High School (Fla.). He also has scouting experience with the Astros, Angels, Mets and Brewers.

In October of 2002, he led an amateur team filled with draft-eligible prospects to the championship of the Perfect Game/Baseball America World Wood Bat tournament held in Jupiter, Fla.

His son, Sean, plays for the Pittsburgh Pirates and made his Major League debut with the Los Angeles Angels on April 18, 2008, vs. Seattle. Johnny Rodriguez, 61, resides in Pinellas Park, Fla.

JOBEL JIMENEZ — HITTING COACH

Jimenez returns for his third season with Springfield and his 13th in the Cardinals organization. Prior to Springfield, he served as hitting coach at Peoria (A) for three seasons (2014-16)

The 2017 Springfield offense led the Texas League with 120 stolen bases, including a league-leading 38 from Oscar Mercado. The 2016 Peoria squad led the Midwest League with 1,255 hits and co-led the circuit with a .266 average, thanks to three different Chiefs finishing in the Top 10 in batting average. The 2015 Chiefs were tied for second in the league with 157 steals, paced by Mercado's 50, which also led the league and Cardinals minor league organization.

Jimenez served as hitting coach for the Gulf Coast Cardinals in 2013 and began his career with St. Louis prior to the start of the 2007 season, when he began as hitting coach for the Venezuelan Summer League Cardinals from 2007-09.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Jimenez worked for six years (2001-06) with the Red Sox as a scout, outfield instructor and hitting coach in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic.

Jimenez, 40, also served as a Venezuelan scout and outfield instructor for the Marlins organization from 1999-2000.

A minor league outfielder in the Dodgers system for two seasons (1993-94), Jimenez moved to the scouting and coaching ranks and spent four seasons as an outfield instructor and VSL scout for the Dodgers from 1994-98.

DARWIN MARRERO — PITCHING COACH

Marrero enters his first season as pitching coach with Springfield following three seasons as pitching coach with State College (A) and two years in the same role with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals.

The 2016 Spikes recorded a league-low 1.76 ERA in the New York-Penn League Playoffs on their way to capturing the league championship. State College led the league with nine shutouts and had the second fewest runs allowed (285) as a staff. Two of the last four seasons, Marrero's pitching staffs have led the league in shutouts and ranked first or second in runs allowed.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Marrero was a pitching coach for the Sioux City Explorers in the American Association (2008). The Explorers staff boasted the Pitcher of the Year winner and the closer established a new league saves record. In 2005, he was pitching coach for the Capitales de Quebec in the Can-Am League.

Marrero's playing career lasted from 1998-2004 with the Montreal Expos organization, attaining his highest level at Double-A, as well as pitching eight seasons in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Marrero, 37, a Venezuela native, resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife, Monica, and their three children, Darwin, Jr. (13), Nikary (10) and Sophia (9).

DANN BILARDELLO — MANAGER

Bilardello returns for his third season as manager of Palm Beach, ninth year managing in the Cardinals organization and 13th overall as a minor league manager. Bilardello led Palm Beach to the 2017 Florida State League South Division title, and the club was named co-champions of the league, as Hurricane Irma forced the cancellation of the league finals.

From 2012-16, Bilardello advanced a coaching level each season, starting with his third and final year in Batavia (A) in 2012, Peoria (A) in 2013, Palm Beach (High-A) in 2014 and Springfield (AA) for the 2015-16 seasons. This is his 12th year with the Cardinals organization, including service as the minor league catching coordinator from 2007- 2009.

Bilardello piloted Springfield to a combined 139-141 record over his two seasons from 2015-16, highlighted by the Cardinals winning the Texas League First Half North Division Championship at 41-29 in 2016. The club's 41 victories set a franchise record for most in the First Half in team history. He and his Springfield staff of Jason Simontacchi and Ramon Ortiz also managed the North Division in the 2016 Texas League All-Star Game.

In 2012, Bilardello's Batavia squad posted a 44-32 record, finishing one game out of the wild card and two games behind the division leader after pulling off a nine-game win streak.

His 2010 Batavia squad won the Pinckney Division crown in his first season at the helm.

The former Major League catcher brought four years of minor league managing experience from the Dodgers and Red Sox organizations. He coached Boston-affiliate Wilmington (High-A) in the Carolina League during the 2005 season after three years managing Dodgers affiliates, including a Pioneer League Championship with Great Falls (R) in 2002 before moving to South Georgia (A) in 2003 and Columbus (A) in 2004.

Bilardello played all or part of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with Cincinnati (1983-85), Montreal (1986), Pittsburgh (1989-90) and San Diego (1991-92). He signed with the Dodgers after being chosen in the first round of the secondary phase of the 1978 June amateur draft. He played a career-high 109 games during his rookie season with the Reds, posting career bests in home runs (9) and RBI (38). He hit his first home run off Tom Seaver.

Bilardello, 58, resides in Naples, Fla., and has three children (two sons, Davis and Trey, and a daughter, Kammie). Davis was a left-handed pitcher drafted by the Cardinals in the 43rd round of the 2007 draft and played as high as Palm Beach (High-A). Trey is a professional golf caddie on the PGA Tour. Kammie was a two-sport athlete at Webber International University, playing tennis for four years and volleyball for three years.

BRANDON ALLEN — HITTING COACH

Allen begins his first season as hitting coach at Palm Beach, his second season as a coach in the Cardinals organization after serving in the same role in 2017 at Johnson City (R).

He mentored a 2017 Johnson City lineup led by first baseman Luis Bandes, who tied for the Appalachian League lead in RBI (49) and finished tied for third in the league with 10 home runs while batting .301 with a .520 slugging percentage in 50 games.

Allen played professionally for 13 years that included parts of four seasons in the Major Leagues. The former left-handed hitter batted a combined .203 with 12 home runs and 41 RBI in 116 games between Arizona (2009-11), Oakland (2011-12), Tampa Bay (2012).

In 2011, Allen became only the second player in history to homer into the upper deck at the New Yankee Stadium (Russell Branyan being the first). In 2012, Allen was the Opening Day first baseman for the eventual A.L. West champions, starting the MLB opener on March 28 in Tokyo against the Mariners.

Allen, who earned a football scholarship to Rice as a linebacker and defensive end and had a baseball scholarship at the University of Houston, was originally drafted by the White Sox in the fifth round of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft out of Montgomery (Texas) High School. The 32-year-old resides in Indiana, Pa.

WILL OHMAN — PITCHING COACH

Ohman enters his first season as pitching coach for Palm Beach and his first season in the Cardinals organization.

A former left-handed reliever, Ohman pitched in the Major Leagues in parts of 10 seasons from 2000-12. He missed the entire 2002-03 seasons because of Tommy John surgery. After the Cubs drafted him in the eighth round of the 1998 draft out of Pepperdine University, he debuted with the Cubs in 2000 and went 6-8 with a 4.33 ERA across 220 relief appearances from 2000-07.

He set career highs in 2008 with the Braves, posting four wins in 83 appearances, which ranked second in MLB. He also spent time in the Dodgers, Marlins, Orioles, White Sox, Reds and Nationals organizations before retiring in 2013 with a career record of 12-16 and a 4.28 ERA in 483 outings.

Ohman, 40, was born on a United States Army base in Frankfurt, Germany.

CHRIS SWAUGER — MANAGER

Swauger enters his second season as manager of Peoria and fifth as a coach in the Cardinals organization after leading the Chiefs to their third consecutive playoff appearance. He previously managed two seasons at Johnson City (R), which culminated with a 2016 Appalachian League Championship. During the 2014 season, Swauger served as hitting coach for Johnson City, which also won the Appalachian League Championship.

Swauger was originally drafted in the 26th round of the 2008 First-Year Player Draft by St. Louis. He played 613 games across seven seasons, beginning with Batavia (A) in 2008 and played as high as Memphis (AAA) in 2012 and 2013, with one stop for eight games with the Clearwater Phillies (High-A) in 2014.

He was a member of two championship teams, Batavia in 2008 in the New York-Penn League and Springfield in 2012 in the Texas League. He had a memorable performance in Game 1 of the 2012 Texas League playoffs against Tulsa, leading the Cardinals back from a 6-0 deficit with three home runs, including the game-winner in the 10th inning.

Swauger, 31, played at The Citadel from 2005-08 where he started every single game of his four-year career and still holds the record for single-season and career triples at the institution. Swauger resides in Odessa, Fla.

RUSS CHAMBLISS — HITTING COACH

Chambliss enters his first season as hitting coach for the Chiefs and his first season in the Cardinals organization. He previously served as an assistant coach at the collegiate level with SUNY-Maritime from 2014-15 after coaching in the high school ranks in Paramus, N.J., in addition to teaching hitting and fielding clinics in the area.

Chambliss was drafted by the Yankees as an outfielder in the 54th round of the 1997 First-Year Player Draft out of Washington University in St. Louis. He remained in the Yankees system for three years, reaching Tampa (High-A) in 1999. He also played for Canton in the Frontier League and Newark in the Atlantic League before retiring after the 2000 season.

He was also drafted by the Padres in the 64th round in 1993 and the Yankees in the 52nd round in 1996, but did not sign.

His father, Chris, played in the Majors for parts of 17 seasons from 1971-88 with the Indians, Yankees and Braves, including winning the 1971 American League Rookie of the Year award and hitting a walk-off home run in the 1976 ALCS to send the Yankees to the World Series. Chris also served as a hitting coach for the Cardinals (1993-95), Yankees (1996-2000), Mets (2002) and Reds (2004-06).

Russ, 42, resides in Englewood, N.J.

CALE JOHNSON — PITCHING COACH

Cale Johnson enters his first season as pitching coach for Peoria and fourth in the Cardinals organization following two seasons in the same position for Johnson City (R), including an Appalachian League title in 2016.

Johnson coached a 2017 Johnson City staff that ranked second in the league with 611 strikeouts and was led by Alvaro Seijas and his league-high 63 strikeouts. Johnson's 2016 pitching staff recorded the lowest ERA as a team in the postseason on their way to the championship, and he coached Frederis Parra to a league-best 2.53 ERA. In 2015, Johnson was the pitching coach at the Gulf Coast League level. The GCL Cardinals boasted three pitchers in the Top 10 in ERA, the wins leader in David Oca (7) and four of the top six strikeout leaders.

Johnson was originally drafted by the Cardinals in the 41st round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft out of McKendree University in Lebanon, Ill. While at McKendree, Johnson was named the American Midwest Conference Pitcher of the Year in back-to-back seasons in 2008 and 2009 and posted a 21-7 record over his final three seasons with the Bearcats, including 24 complete games.

He pitched three seasons in the Cardinals organization, starting with the GCL Cardinals and Johnson City in 2009, Johnson City in 2010 and the Midwest League Champion Quad Cities team in 2011. Johnson compiled career marks of 8-9 with a 3.81 ERA over 55 appearances and 15 starts.

The past three years, Johnson, 30, has worked as a private pitching and hitting instructor for Back-2-Back, a training facility in Highland, Ill. He resides in Highland, Ill., with his wife, Jessica, and their son, Maclin.

JOE KRUZEL — MANAGER

Joe Kruzel begins his second season as manager in State College and fifth year managing in the Cardinals organization. He previously managed three years at Peoria (A) from 2014-16 and the 2013 season at Johnson City (R). Prior to managing, he spent five seasons (2008-12) as hitting coach for the Cardinals' Class-A affiliate in Quad Cities. The 2018 season marks his 11th season in the Cardinals organization.

Kruzel led the Spikes to their fifth straight campaign of at least 40 wins in 2017 and managed the South club to a victory in the New York-Penn League All-Star Game. He also managed Peoria (A) to the Midwest League postseason in back-to-back seasons from 2015-16. Across four seasons as a manager in the Cardinals organization, Kruzel's squads have a record of 296-262 (.530), and he holds a career mark of 327-293 (.527), including one season in the Reds organization.

As hitting coach in Quad Cities in 2012, the team ranked third in the Midwest League in batting and led the league in home runs (109) and RBI (649). In 2011, Quad Cities finished tops in the Midwest League in doubles (281), walks (550), on-base percentage (.346) and slugging percentage (.395).

Kruzel came to the Cardinals after spending the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the Reds organization. In 2006, Kruzel was the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Reds before moving on to the manager position at Billings (R) in 2007.

Prior to his time with the Reds, the veteran collegiate coach served as the assistant baseball coach at Miami (Ohio) University in 2005. He also spent 15 seasons (1989-2003) at the University of Toledo, where he served as the assistant baseball coach from 1989-92 and then moved on to head coach from 1993-2003. Kruzel was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year in 1999 and coached Mitch Maier in 2003, who was the only first round draft pick (Kansas City Royals) in Toledo history and consensus first-team All-American. In addition to his coaching career, Kruzel played second base at Toledo from 1985-1988.

Kruzel, 52, resides in Hamilton, Ohio, with his wife Amy and three children A.J. (24), Jaime (21) and Abby (19). A.J. is a volunteer assistant for the Bradley (Ill.) University baseball team and was drafted by the Cardinals in the 37th round of the 2013 draft, but did not sign. Jaime is a member of the University of Cincinnati dance team.

ROGER LAFRANCOIS — HITTING COACH

LaFrancois enters his fourth season as hitting coach for State College after experience in the same role from 2013-14 at Palm Beach (High-A) and from 2010-12 at Batavia (A). Last season, LaFrancois tutored an offense that led the New York-Penn League with a .262 team batting average and 356 runs scored while tying for the league lead in doubles (133). The 2016 club also lead the NYPL in runs scored (378) en route to the league championship.

LaFrancois has more than 25 years of coaching experience at the minor league level. He has served with several different Major League organizations, including the White Sox, Giants, Mets, Expos and Braves before joining the Cardinals. He was also a catcher in the Red Sox organization after they selected him in the eighth round in the June, 1977 First-Year Player Draft. He spent eight years in the minor leagues and one season at Fenway Park in 1982 when he batted .400 (4-10).

LaFrancois is a partner and director of the World Baseball and Softball Coaches Convention, which hosts more than 2,000 coaches annually since 2003. He and his wife, Colleen, own a full-service marketing firm called LaFrancois Marketing Consultants based in Old Saybrook, Conn. The couple has a son, Jeff, who resides in Hoboken, N.J., and daughter, Amanda, who attends Boston University.

ADRIAN MARTIN — PITCHING COACH

Martin begins his first season as pitching coach for State College and second as a coach in the Cardinals organization. He served as a coach with the Pacific Coast League champion Memphis Redbirds (AAA) in 2017.

The Toronto Blue Jays selected Martin, a former right-handed pitcher, in the 19th round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft out of South Fork High School in Stuart, Fla. He pitched professionally for 12 seasons primarily in the Toronto and San Francisco organizations. He compiled a 36-16 record with a 3.74 ERA in 200 outings from 2003-10, reaching Las Vegas (AAA) in the Blue Jays system in 2009.

He also appeared in 22 games with Auburn in the New York-Penn League in 2005, going 1-1 with a 3.05 ERA.

Martin, 33, resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife, Emmie.

ROBERTO ESPINOZA — MANAGER

Espinoza enters his second season as manager in Johnson City and fifth as a coach in the Cardinals organization. He moved to his current role in 2017 after serving as hitting coach for Appalachian League Champion Johnson City (R) in 2016.

In 2015, Espinoza was hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals following a year as the bullpen assistant in St. Louis when he helped catch bullpens and translate for Spanish-speaking players who needed to talk to the media.

The 2016 Johnson City squad led the league in batting average (.281), hits (651), doubles (132), fewest strikeouts (469), and on-base percentage (.350) while boasting four hitters in the top seven in batting, which included batting champ Allen Cordoba (.362). Espinoza's 2015 Gulf Coast squad led the league as a team in total bases (692), triples (22), RBI (239) and fewest strikeouts (345). The 2015 GCL Cardinals also produced their second straight batting champion in Cordoba (.342) and boasted two players in the top five in batting, hits and runs scored.

Espinoza was originally signed by the Cardinals as a non-drafted free agent out of Palo Negro, Venezuela, in March 2006.

The former Cardinals minor league catcher played in the organization for five seasons before an injury sidelined him during the 2011 and 2012 seasons, when he pursued a career in coaching. Espinoza played in 202 games, advancing as far as Palm Beach (High-A) in 2010.

Espinoza, 29, resides in Jupiter, Fla., in the off-season.

CODY GABELLA — HITTING COACH

Gabella enters his first season as hitting coach for Johnson City and third in the Cardinals organization after two seasons as a coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals.

The 2017 GCL Cardinals hit a club-record 29 home runs, surpassing the previous high of 25 set in 2012 and 2010. Gabella also coached Dylan Carlson in 2016 as the center fielder tied for second in the league with 13 doubles on a club that won the GCL Championship.

Before joining the Cardinals in 2015, Gabella was a hitting and third base coach for the Watertown Bucks, an independent league team in Watertown, N.Y.

Gabella played 47 games across two seasons of professional baseball in the San Diego Padres organization as an infielder from 2011-12, reaching as high as Lake Elsinore (High-A) in the California League.

He was selected by the Padres in the 43rd round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft, out of Southeastern Iowa Community College. In 2010, he was selected in the 50th round by the Atlanta Braves, but did not sign.

Gabella, 26, graduated from MLBSB Scout School in 2014 and is the son of current San Francisco Giants scout Jim Gabella. He resides in Orlando, Fla.

RICK HARIG — PITCHING COACH

Harig begins his first season as pitching coach for Johnson City and his first season as a coach in the Cardinals organization. He joined the Cardinals baseball operations department in 2016 after more than 30 years as a coach at the amateur level, as well as work in player development and scouting for several MLB teams.

Harig amassed more than 1,300 wins and nine state championships as an American Legion and high school coach, and he was a 2015 inductee of the Colorado Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. A University of Colorado Boulder graduate, Harig taught high school math at Fairview High School from 1985-2016 to pupils such as former MLB pitcher Jesse Crain and Cardinals President of Baseball Operations John Mozeliak.

He also worked part-time for the San Diego Padres player development department in the mid-2000s and was a regional scout for various MLB teams for 15 years.

Harig also started his own company in 2007, working as a performance coach and keynote speaker who focuses on performance development. He resides in Boulder, Colo.

GULF COAST LEAGUE CARDINALS (ROOKIE)

Cardinals Complex at Roger Dean Stadium
4795 University Drive
Jupiter, FL 33458
(561) 775-1818

Director of Operations: Luis Morales
Athletic Trainer: Chris Walsh

ERICK ALMONTE — MANAGER

Erick Almonte begins his first season as manager with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals and fifth in the Cardinals organization. He was the hitting coach with 2017 Florida State League Co-Champion Palm Beach, which had the fewest strikeouts in the league (919). He also served as a coach with the Dominican Summer League entry from 2014-16.

Almonte played professionally for 17 years, which included parts of three seasons in the Major Leagues. He played in 55 Major League games batting .233 with two home runs and 14 RBI, and he was a member of the American League Champion New York Yankees teams in 2001 and 2003. He also played in 16 games for the National League Central Division Champion Milwaukee Brewers in 2011.

He was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Yankees in 1996 out of the Dominican Republic. His career included four MLB organizations: Yankees (1997-03), Rockies (2004), Tigers (2007-08) and Brewers (2009-12).

Almonte, 40, resides in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. His brother, Hector, pitched in parts of two seasons with the Marlins, Red Sox and Expos.

JOSH LOPEZ — HITTING COACH

Lopez begins his first season as hitting coach for the GCL Cardinals and second season in the Cardinals organization. He spent the 2017 campaign as a 4th coach for Peoria (A) in the Midwest League, assisting with pre-game preparation and worked for the Cardinals Pro Scouting Department by scouting opposing Midwest League teams.

Lopez spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at Stetson University, helping guide the Hatters to a 2016 Atlantic Sun Conference Championship and a berth in the Coral Gables Regional.

Previously, Lopez served as an assistant coach at Palm Beach State College for two seasons, and assisted in leading them to a 2013 NJCAA Regional 8 State Championship. They finished the year as the national runner-ups at the World Series. Prior to Palm Beach State, Lopez spent one year at Florida Christian College as an assistant coach.

Lopez began his coaching career at Deltona High School as the head JV and assistant Varsity coach for six years. In 2011, he helped his team to a FHSAA 6A State runner-up finish.

Josh graduated from the University of Central Florida with a Bachelor's Degree in Sport and Fitness, and gained his Master's Degree from Ohio University in Recreation and Sport Sciences.

GIOVANNI CARRARA — PITCHING COACH

Giovanni Carrara returns for his third season as pitching coach in the Gulf Coast League and his fourth season in the Cardinals organization, serving as pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals in 2015.

The 149 walks Carrara's staff allowed in 2017 were the second fewest in the GCL, while the 2016 club captured the GCL Championship behind five wins and a 2.32 ERA from Franyel Casadilla, who also tossed five shutout innings in a game one, 3-0 win in the finals vs. the GCL Phillies.

Carrara was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent out of Venezuela by the Blue Jays in 1990. He pitched in parts of 10 Major League seasons (1995-2006), appearing in games with the Blue Jays (1995-96), Reds (1996-97), Rockies (2000), Dodgers (2001-02, 2004-06) and Mariners (2003). He posted a 29-18 career record with a 4.69 ERA in 313 games (18 starts).

He posted a career-best 2.18 ERA in 2004 when he went 5-2 with two saves in 42 appearances as an integral part of the Dodgers bullpen. The Dodgers claimed the National League West Division that season, and Carrara made three post-season appearances before his team fell to St. Louis in the National League Division Series. Carrara pitched in a career-high 72 games at the age of 37 in 2005, winning a career-high seven games in a relief role.

Carrara, 50, represented Italy in the 2007 Euros due to his parents heritage from Italy. He resides in El Tigre, Venezuela, in the off-season.

FRAY PENICHE — MANAGER

Peniche begins his eighth season as manager of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals 1 and has compiled a 269-297 record (.475).

He spent 12 seasons in the Detroit Tigers organization, most recently as manager of the DSL Tigers (2007-10). Peniche began his coaching career with the Oneonta Tigers (SS) in 1999, then moved on as a coach with the DSL Tigers from 2000-2006. He was promoted to manager of the DSL Tigers in 2007 and led the team to a 45-20 record and a second place finish in their division.

Peniche was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Tigers and played four seasons in their minor league system. He spent three seasons (1995-97) with the Gulf Coast League Tigers and one season (1998) in the New York-Penn League with the Jamestown Jammers (R). Peniche, 41, resides in Santo Domingo Este, Dominican Republic, with his wife, Sandy, and two children: Aaron (18) and Fray Antonio (14).

JOSE LEON — HITTING COACH

Leon begins his first season as hitting coach of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals and his first season as a coach in the Cardinals organization.

The Cardinals drafted Leon in the 22nd round of the 1994 First-Year Player Draft as a right-handed hitting infielder out of Albergue Olimpico School in his hometown of Cayey, Puerto Rico. Leon remained in the Cardinals minor league system until 2000, including the 1998 season with Prince William (High-A) when he batted .291 with a career-high 21 home runs and 74 RBI.

He joined the Baltimore Orioles organization late in the 2000 season and made his MLB debut with the Orioles in 2002, batting .247 with three home runs and 10 RBI in 36 games. Leon also played for the Orioles from 2003-04 before spending parts of the next five years in the Pirates and Reds organizations, in addition to the Mexican League, Atlantic League and Chinese Professional Baseball League.

Leon is 41 years old.

BILL VILLANUEVA — PITCHING COACH

Villanueva returns for his third season as pitching coach of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals 1. He was in Johnson City (R) for the 2015 season, and previously served in the same capacity for the DSL Cardinals from 2008-14. Villanueva joined the Cardinals organization in 2005. After serving as an assistant pitching instructor at the Cardinals' complex in Jupiter, Fla., in 2008, he returned to coaching in 2009.

Villanueva was the pitching coach when current St. Louis Cardinals pitcher Carlos Martinez won the 2010 Dominican Summer League ERA title with a 0.76 ERA.

A former right-handed pitcher, Villanueva signed with the Marlins in 1995 and pitched six seasons in their minor league system. Overall, Villanueva was 14-28 with a 3.95 ERA in 77 career minor league games (61 starts). Villanueva also played for the Tigres de Licey from 1998-2001 in the Caribbean Baseball Series.

The 39-year-old is a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE CARDINALS 2 (ROOKIE)

Cardinals Academy
Jubey, La Malena
Boca Chica, Dominican Republic

Academy Administrator: Aaron Rodriguez
Athletic Trainer: Alex Wolfinger
Strength & Conditioning: Carlos Nin

JOHN MATOS — MANAGER

Matos begins his first season as manager for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals 2 and ninth season with the Cardinals organization after being hired prior to the start of the 2010 season.

Matos most recently served as hitting coach for the DSL Cardinals 1 and has worked all of his previous eight seasons as a coach for that club. One of his main responsibilities included work with the infielders of the DSL team.

A former infielder, Matos signed with the Cincinnati Reds in 1999 and played two seasons in their minor league system. The 41-year-old is a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

RENEE CORTEZ — PITCHING COACH

Cortez enters his first season as pitching coach for the DSL Cardinals 2 and first as a coach in the Cardinals organization.

Cortez was orginally signed as a non-drafted free agent by Seattle and pitched parts of seven minor league seasons in the Mariners organization (2001-07). The former right-hander split the 2011 season between Petroleros de Minatitlan of the Mexican League, and Edinburg Roadrunners and Rio Grande Valley WhiteWings of the Independent North American League.

A native of Valencia, Venezuela, Cortez also pitched in the Venezuelan Winter League from 2007-18.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:

Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:

Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:

40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:

A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:

Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:

Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:

Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:

A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:

A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:

7-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is seven calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. Created specifically for players with concussion symptoms. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

10-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 10 calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

THE DARRYL KILE AWARD

At its annual dinner in January of 2003, the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the creation of the Darryl Kile Award. It is given annually to the Cardinal player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father and a humble man. A veteran of 331 big league starts, Darryl was never on the disabled list at the Major League level and prided himself on never missing a start. The award was not given in 2002 in honor of Darryl.

*Denotes rookie

The St. Louis Cardinals were represented by two players at the 2017 Major League Baseball All-Star Game in Miami. Carlos Martinez (left) struck out four batters in two innings, the first Cardinals pitcher to fan four in an All-Star Game since Dizzy Dean in 1934. Yadier Molina (right) hit a game-tying home run in the 6th inning, the first Cardinal to hit a home run in an All-Star Game since 1974 and seventh overall. Later in the game, Molina played a role as photographer snapping a camera phone shot of home plate umpire Joe West and Seattle Mariners outfielder Nelson Cruz.

THE PLOT
The St. Louis Cardinals won the first ever National League Wild Card game rallying to defeat the Atlanta Braves 6-3 at Turner Field in Atlanta. The Cardinals faced Braves starting pitcher Kris Medlen, who entered the game 10-1 with a 1.57 ERA, winning his last nine decisions with the Braves having won the last 12 games he started. Cardinals staring pitcher Kyle Lohse brought a 16-3 record into the game, the highest winning percentage (.842) by a pitcher in Cardinals history.

BRAVES STRIKE FIRST
The Braves struck first as David Ross hit a two-run home run in the bottom of the 2nd inning.

CARDINALS TAKE ADVANTAGE
St. Louis would break into the run column in the 4th inning, plating three runs courtesy of a Chipper Jones error that put two Cardinals on base for consecutive RBIs on a double by Allen Craig, a ground out from Yadier Molina and a sacrifice fly by David Freese.

HOLLIDAY'S HOME RUN
Matt Holliday smacked a solo home run in the 6th inning to give St. Louis a 4-2 lead. The Cardinals bullpen came on in relief of Lohse in the bottom of the 6th and wouldn't relinquish the lead.

CARDINALS CAPITALIZE ON MORE ERRORS
Errors by the Braves led to two more Cardinals runs in the 7th as Freese reached on a Dan Uggla error to lead off the inning. Daniel Descalso bunted pinch-runner Adron Chambers into scoring position and an error by Andrelton Simmons on Pete Kozma's ground ball scored Chambers and kept the Cardinals in scoring position. Rookie Matt Carpenter hit a pinch-hit infield single and Kozma, running on contact, scored all the way from second to give the Cardinals a 6-2 lead.

BRAVES INCH CLOSER
The Braves scored in the bottom of the seventh as Jose Constanza tripled and scored on a Michael Bourn ground out.

THE INFIELD FLY
The Braves threatened again in the 8th inning with one out and runners on first and second base Andrelton Simmons hit a pop fly to left field. Kozma appeared to be under it before vacating for left fielder Holliday. The ball dropped in, but left field umpire Sam Holbrook had signaled for an infield fly automatically retiring Simmons, while the Braves runners moved up to second and third. Jason Motte came on in relief following a walk to load the bases and struck out Bourn to end the inning as fans littered the Turner Field playing surface with debris.

MOTTE PITCHES THE CARDINALS INTO THE NLCS
The Cardinals held the Braves scoreless in the 9th inning and won the game 6-3 to advance to the National League Division Series against the top-seeded Washington Nationals who they defeated in five games.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

In the 126-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, 14 individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout, or from the owner's box or broadcast booth that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (20 numbers/21 individuals) have recognized more individuals among Major League Baseball franchises. The honored Redbirds' uniform numbers appear in two areas at Busch Stadium – on the left-field wall and below the main scoreboard in right-center field.

Uniform No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. The Cardinals subsequently retired No. 42 for Hall of Fame relief pitcher Bruce Sutter in 2006.

The most-recent Redbird so honored was manager Tony La Russa, who returned to Busch Stadium on May 11, 2012, for a pregame ceremony during which his No. 10 was retired before a sellout crowd. He also was presented a key to the city by St. Louis Mayor Francis Slay.

OZZIE SMITH
SHORTSTOP

1

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 150 BATS: Both THROWS: Right

BORN: 12/26/54 at Mobile, Alabama

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1982-96

NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. But, after being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat, as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on Feb. 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success in the 1980s, and he became one of the city's most-popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly improved that figure to .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career-high six home runs and 54 RBI. He stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast – on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer – was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Glove Awards between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 5, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Among shortstops, Smith is baseball's career leader in assists (8,375) and total chances (12,905) and ranks second in double plays (1,590). He led the N.L. in fielding percentage seven times and had a career .978 mark. In 2007, Smith was named the shortstop on the All-Time Rawlings Gold Glove team, selected to honor the 50th anniversary of the Gold Glove Award.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games and started 11 of them. At the time of his retirement following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Mid-Summer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). On the Cardinals' career lists, Smith ranks third in games played (1,990), at-bats (7,160), walks (876) and stolen bases (433); seventh in runs (991) and hits (1,944); and 10th in doubles (338).

Held in high esteem for his civic-mindedness, Smith received the Lou Gehrig Award (presented to the player who best exhibits the character and integrity of Lou Gehrig both on and off the field) in 1989; the Branch Rickey Award (in recognition of his exceptional community service) in 1994; and the Roberto Clemente Award (presented to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team) in 1995.

Smith was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 2002, earning 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America, and an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the shortstop on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

RED SCHOENDIENST
SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

2

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 2/2/23 at Germantown, Illinois
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1945-56, 1961-76, 1979-95
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for some 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and still is involved with the organization as special assistant to the general manager.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club to fill in for left fielder Stan Musial, who was serving in the U.S. Army. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. The following year, Musial returned to the Cardinals, and Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average – second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers (.344), 15 home runs and 79 RBI. In a surprising trade, Schoendienst was dealt to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman on June 14, 1956.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. On the Cardinals' career lists, Schoendienst ranks fourth in at-bats (6,841) and pinch-hits (54), fifth in games played (1,795), sixth in runs (1,025) and hits (1,980), seventh in doubles (352), and eighth in total bases (2,657). He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957, and seven times he either led or tied for the league lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory over the Red Sox in 1967 and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, the longest in franchise history until Tony La Russa surpassed him in 2008. Schoendienst ranks second in franchise annals with 1,041 wins.

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Schoendienst was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1987.

STAN MUSIAL
OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

6

FULL NAME: Stanley Frank Musial
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Left THREW: Left
BORN: 11/21/20 at Donora, Pennsylvania
DIED: 1/19/13 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63
NUMBER RETIRED: 1963

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals' history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games played (3,026), at-bats (10,971), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,950), walks (1,605) and total bases (6,134). His .331 average is fourth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) and Joe Medwick (.335). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks seventh with 35 pinch-hits.

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season, beginning a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples en route to earning the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of four World Championship teams (1942, 1943, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Mid-Summer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch-hit double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He still has the fourth-most hits in baseball history – behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Following his playing days, Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the Cardinals and served as general manager when they won the 1967 World Series over the Boston Red Sox.

Musial was the first player in Cardinals' history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1969, receiving 93 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. In 2015, Musial was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Bob Gibson and Rogers Hornsby as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

More than anything else, the personable Musial was a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight." In 2010, Musial was chosen by President Barack Obama to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian honor for a United States citizen.

ENOS SLAUGHTER
OUTFIELDER

9

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter
HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATTED: Left THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/1916 at Roxboro, North Carolina
DIED: 8/12/2002 at Durham, North Carolina
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1938-42, 1946-53
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained at first base as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of four straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average – second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves (.330) – and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history. The Cardinals won the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1949 and topped the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs. No other player in major league history has accomplished that feat twice.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Tellinger. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On the Cardinals' career lists, he ranks third in triples (135) and RBI (1,149); fourth in games played (1,820) and walks (838); fifth in at-bats (6,775), runs (1,071), hits (2,064) and total bases (3,138); and sixth in doubles (366). He batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1985, and he was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

TONY La RUSSA
MANAGER

10

FULL NAME: Anthony La Russa Jr.
BORN: 10/4/1944 at Tampa, Florida.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1996-2011
NUMBER RETIRED: 2012

Tony La Russa was tantamount with winning.

As manager of the Cardinals from 1996 to 2011, La Russa amassed 1,408 victories. He became the winningest manager in franchise history Aug. 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042. La Russa also won championships in St. Louis: eight division titles, three National League pennants and the 2006 and 2011 World Series. All told, the Cardinals made nine postseason appearances in La Russa's 16 seasons at the helm, and his teams finished first, second or third in the N.L. Central Division 13 times.

His finest hour may have been his last. Trailing the Texas Rangers three games to two in the 2011 World Series – and twice down to their final strike in Game 6 – the Cardinals rallied to force Game 7 and went on to capture the franchise's 11th world championship. It capped a magical two-month odyssey for the ball club, which had been staving off elimination seemingly at every turn since Aug. 25, when it trailed the N.L. wild card race by 10 1/2 games, and made the playoffs on the season's final day.

When La Russa announced his retirement Oct. 31, 2011, his 16 years of continuous service were the most among active managers/head coaches in the four major professional sports leagues.

Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). Over 33 seasons, he totaled 2,728 victories, ranking third in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). La Russa managed 5,097 games, second to Mack (7,755).

La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of two to win a World Series title in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 70 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 1 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

In Oakland, La Russa piloted the A's to four division titles, three American League pennants and the 1989 World Championship. He is the A's franchise leader with 798 wins. The 1983 White Sox won the A.L. Western Division to make their first postseason appearance in 24 years.

La Russa and Leo Durocher are the only managers in major league history to win 500 games with three different teams. La Russa was named Major League Manager of the Year in 1983 and 1996; A.L. Manager of the Year in 1983, 1988 and 1992; and N.L. Manager of the Year in 2002. La Russa is the only manager to win an All-Star Game in both leagues, and he had a 4-2 record in the Midsummer Classic.

A native of Tampa, Fla., La Russa played second base, shortstop and third base in the majors for parts of six seasons with the Kansas City A's (1963), Oakland (1968-71), Atlanta (1971) and Chicago Cubs (1973).

Nineteen years before becoming manager of the Cardinals, La Russa served as a player-coach for the organization's New Orleans Triple-A affiliate in 1977. He began his managerial career a year later in the White Sox minor league system with Double-A Knoxville.

La Russa is a 1978 graduate of the Florida State University College of Law. He passed the bar exam in 1979 and became one of five lawyer/managers in baseball history, joining Monte Ward, Hughie Jennings, Miller Huggins and Branch Rickey.

In 2014, La Russa was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Elaine, are the founders of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation, which saves abandoned dogs and cats and finds them homes.

KEN BOYER
THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

14

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 5/20/31 at Liberty, Missouri
DIED: 9/7/82 at St. Louis, Missouri
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

Only one player in Cardinals' history has hit for the cycle twice. Ken Boyer accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove Awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory and contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game, 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Mid-Summer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals career lists, Boyer ranks third in home runs (255); sixth in RBI (1,001); sixth in at-bats (6,334) and total bases (3,011); eighth in games played (1,667), runs (988) and hits (1,855); and ninth in walks (629). His seven grand slams are tied for third in club history behind Albert Pujols (12) and Stan Musial (9).

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club on April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. Eastern Division the following year. But, in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got on track, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age. He was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

DIZZY DEAN
PITCHER

17

FULL NAME: Jay Hanna (Dizzy) Dean
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 182 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 1/16/10 at Lucas, Arkansas
DIED: 7/17/74 at Reno, Nevada
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1930, 1932-37
NUMBER RETIRED: 1974

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the "Gas House Gang." The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals' history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout in an 11-0 Game 7 win.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On the Cardinals' career lists, Dean ranks third in games started (387) and strikeouts (1,095), fifth in winning percentage (.641), sixth in complete games (141) and shutouts (23), seventh in wins (134), and 10th in innings pitched (1,738.1).

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a double-header against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1953 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Left THROWS: Left
BORN: 6/18/39 at El Dorado, Arkansas
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79
NUMBER RETIRED: 1979

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he owns the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering Maury Wills' mark of 104 during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases, making him the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), becoming the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium. Brock's 3,023 career hits rank 27th on baseball's all-time list through 2017.

Upon his arrival in St. Louis, Brock paid immediate dividends, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) ranks as the third-best in World Series history, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all-time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox. Brock holds the Fall Classic record for stolen bases in a single series (7 in both 1967 and 1968).

On the Cardinals' career lists, Brock ranks first in stolen bases (888 – Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games played (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427) and hits (2,713); third in doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121); sixth in walks (681); and ninth in RBI (814). His 21 career leadoff home runs are the most in club annals.

Brock has remained active in baseball since retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a base-running consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and has served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (base running and outfield play) since 1995.

The six-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1985 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Brock was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Bob Gibson, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

WHITEY HERZOG

24

FULL NAME: Dorrel Norman Elvert Herzog
BORN: 11/9/1931 at New Athens, Illinois
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1980-90
NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Whitey Herzog.

A native of New Athens, Ill., in the Metro East area of St. Louis, Herzog managed the Cardinals from 1980 to 1990. He ranks third in franchise history with 822 victories – trailing only Tony La Russa (1,408) and Red Schoendienst (1,041) – and his teams won three National League pennants and the 1982 World Series.

Hand-picked by club president August Busch Jr., Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980. Two months later, Herzog turned over his on-field managerial duties to become general manager and have more direct involvement in player personnel. He assumed the dual role of field manager and general manager in October.

At the winter meetings that December, Herzog began to transform the Cardinals with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. He envisioned a team built on speed and defense in spacious Busch Stadium.

St. Louis posted the best record in the N.L. in 1981 but finished second in the Eastern Division in both halves of the strike-interrupted season and did not make the playoffs. Herzog relinquished his general manager duties on Opening Day of the 1982 season. The Cardinals went on to win the World Series with a thrilling seven-game victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the franchise's first championship in 15 years.

Two more pennants followed in 1985 and 1987. Meanwhile, fans flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Herzog, who valued his sterling relationship with Busch, resigned July 5, 1990, less than a year after Busch died, and did not manage again.

Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79). The Royals won three straight American League Western Division titles from 1976 to 1978 but fell to the New York Yankees in the League Championship Series all three times.

Herzog's lifetime managerial record was 1,281-1,125, a .532 winning percentage. His win total ranks 37th on baseball's all-time list through 2017. He was named the 1982 Major League Manager of the Year and 1985 N.L. Manager of the Year. The charismatic "White Rat" also spent time as a big league coach, farm system director and scout and briefly served as general manager of the Angels in 1993 and 1994.

Primarily an outfielder during an eight-year big-league playing career, Herzog batted .257 with 25 home runs and 172 RBI for the Washington Senators (1956-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-60), Baltimore Orioles (1961-62) and Detroit Tigers (1963).

As a minor leaguer with the McAlester (Okla.) Rockets in 1949, Herzog was christened with the name "Whitey" by sportscaster Bill Speith for his light-colored hair.

Herzog was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2010 by the Veterans Committee. Two days before the enshrinement ceremonies July 25, Cardinals chairman Bill DeWitt Jr. announced that Herzog's number 24 would be retired by the organization. Herzog wore No. 3 in 1980, but infielder Ken Oberkfell gave up No. 24 after the season and Herzog took it. Herzog was voted the manager on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

BRUCE SUTTER
PITCHER

42

FULL NAME: Howard Bruce Sutter

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 1/8/53 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1981-84

NUMBER RETIRED: 2006

Bruce Sutter was a pioneer whose journey landed him in Cooperstown.

The right-handed lights-out closer, who made the split-fingered fastball famous, was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006. He became the fourth reliever enshrined into baseball's hallowed ground, following Hoyt Wilhelm (1985), Rollie Fingers (1992) and Dennis Eckersley (2004). Sutter was the first player never to start a game to be selected.

Sutter pitched for the Cardinals from 1981 to 1984. Acquired from the Chicago Cubs on Dec. 9, 1980, in exchange for first baseman Leon Durham, third baseman Ken Reitz and minor-league third baseman Ty Waller, Sutter proved to be a key acquisition for general manager and manager Whitey Herzog in his transformation of the Cardinals from underachievers to World Champions.

During the strike-shortened 1981 season, Sutter saved 25 games – the most by a St. Louis pitcher since the save became an officially recognized statistic in 1969. Chants of "Bruuuuuce!" bellowed throughout Busch Stadium every time he ran in from the bullpen. Sutter recorded 36 saves in 1982 and struck out Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers to wrap up Game 7 of the World Series.

Sutter had 45 saves in 1985 to tie the Major League record – set by Dan Quisenberry of the Kansas City Royals two years earlier – that since has been eclipsed. The Cardinals elected not to re-sign Sutter after that season, and he moved on to the Atlanta Braves. He subsequently was hampered by shoulder problems that led to his retirement following the 1988 campaign at the age of 35.

Struggling in the minor leagues with Class-A Quincy (Ill.) in 1973, Sutter learned the revolutionary split-fingered pitch from former Cardinals' right-hander Fred Martin, then a Chicago minor-league pitching coach. The pitch, an offshoot of the forkball that Sutter was suited to throw because of his long fingers, aptly was described as "a fastball that winds up like a dead fish" because of its wicked forward spin.

By 1976, Sutter was in the big leagues with the Cubs. He won the 1979 N.L. Cy Young Award after amassing 37 saves and a 2.22 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 101.3 innings pitched. He was only the third reliever to be so honored, following Mark Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees in 1977.

In 12 major-league seasons, Sutter totaled 300 saves to rank third on baseball's all-time list at the time of his retirement and tied for 26th through 2017. He worked more than one inning for 188 of his rescues and surpassed 100 innings pitched in a season on five occasions, with one more year at 99. Sutter led the Senior Circuit in saves in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984. He was a six-time All-Star – appearing in four games and earning two wins (1978 and 1979) and two saves (1980 and 1981) while not allowing a run – and received the Rolaids Relief Man Award four times.

Sutter's four-year St. Louis save total of 127 established a franchise record and now ranks fourth behind Jason Isringhausen (217), Lee Smith (160) and Todd Worrell (129). Sutter was voted the relief pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

BOB GIBSON
PITCHER

45

FULL NAME: Robert Gibson
HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 11/9/35 at Omaha, Nebraska
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1959-75
NUMBER RETIRED: 1975

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals' history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander ranks first in wins (251), games started (482), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,885.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528) and tied for ninth in ERA (2.91).

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente on July 15 broke Gibson's right leg. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18. In the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox, Gibson went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts to again be named series MVP.

The postseason dominance was a sign of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered merely two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight distance-going performances. Gibson totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, socking 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Glove Awards. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1981 and an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and voted the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Gibson was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

"Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also has done some broadcasting and has been a special instructor for the Cardinals since 1996.

PROMINENT CARDINALS WHO WORE NO. 45

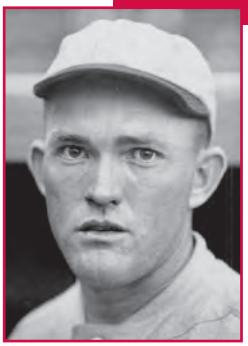
Retired Numbers



ROGERS HORNSBY
SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Rogers Hornsby
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/1896 at Winters, Texas
DIED: 1/5/1963 at Chicago, Illinois
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1915-26, 1933
NUMBER RETIRED: 1997 (The Cardinals did not have numbers on their uniforms during Hornsby's tenure.)

Since 1900, only two players have batted .400 on three occasions – Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby.

And only two players have won multiple Triple Crowns – Ted Williams and Hornsby.

Primarily a second baseman during his 23-year career, Hornsby batted .401 in 1922, .403 in 1925 and .424 (a modern-day record) in 1924. He is the lone player in Cardinals' history to reach the coveted plateau. Hornsby led the National League in batting six consecutive seasons from 1920 to 1925, compiling a .397 average during that span. From 1921 to 1925, his average was .402, making him the only player ever to bat .400 over a five-year period.

Arguably the greatest right-handed batter of all time, Hornsby won the Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925. The first time, he batted .401 with 42 home runs (then an N.L. record) and 152 RBI while setting club records that still stand of 141 runs, 250 hits, 450 total bases, a .756 slugging percentage and a 33-game hitting streak. The second time, Hornsby had a .403 average with 39 homers and 139 RBI en route to being named the N.L. Most Valuable Player.

"The Rajah" spent the first 12 years of his career in St. Louis, leading the league in slugging percentage seven times; total bases six times; hits, doubles and RBI four times; runs three times; triples and home runs twice; and walks once. He was well known for refusing to go to movies because he thought the "strain" of watching the screen in darkness would hinder his eyesight.

On June 1, 1925, Hornsby took over as manager of the Cardinals, replacing Branch Rickey. Hornsby continued in the dual role in 1926 and piloted the club to an 89-65 record and its first-ever World Championship, a seven-game victory over the New York Yankees. He tagged out Babe Ruth attempting to steal second base for the final out of Game 7, calling the play that clinched the 3-2 victory "the biggest thrill of my baseball career."

An outspoken individual, Hornsby at times was critical of owner Sam Breadon. Eventually, Breadon had enough, and on Dec. 26, 1926, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for infielder Frankie Frisch (who had had a falling out with his manager, John McGraw) and pitcher Jimmy Ring.

Hornsby subsequently played for and managed the Boston Braves (1928) and Chicago Cubs (1929-32), winning a second MVP Award in 1929, before returning to the Cardinals in 1933. His second stint, however, lasted just three months before Hornsby was released to become manager of the cross-town Browns. He remained in the Browns' dugout until midway through the 1937 season. Hornsby returned to manage the Browns for the first two months of the 1952 campaign before moving on to the Cincinnati Reds for roughly a season and a half.

On the Cardinals' career lists, Hornsby ranks first in batting average (.359), second in triples (143), third in hits (2,110), fourth in runs (1,089) and total bases (3,342), fifth in doubles (367), seventh in home runs (193) and walks (662), and 10th in at-bats (5,881) and RBI (806). His 30 career inside-the-park home runs are the most in club annals, while he is tied for third with seven grand slams.

Hornsby, whose lifetime batting average of .358 is the highest of any right-handed batter and second only to Cobb's .366 among all players, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1942. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. In 2015, Hornsby was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Bob Gibson and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR.
PRESIDENT

85

FULL NAME: August Anheuser Busch, Jr.
BORN: 3/28/1899 at St. Louis, Missouri
DIED: 9/29/89 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1953-89
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of Busch Stadium II. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious for the ball club to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 9, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the city of St. Louis' most-popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996. August Jr. was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

"That's a winner!"

JACK BUCK
BROADCASTER

FULL NAME: John Francis Buck
BORN: 8/21/1924 at Holyoke, Massachusetts
DIED: 6/18/2002 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1954-59, 1961-2001
NUMBER RETIRED: 2002

He never swung a bat or threw a pitch, yet Jack Buck ranks as one of the most popular individuals ever associated with the Cardinals – perhaps the most popular.

Buck served as the "Voice of the Cardinals" on KMOX Radio for 47 years (1954-59 and 1961-2001). He was behind the microphone for some of the franchise's most-memorable moments: Bob Gibson's no-hitter in 1971, Lou Brock's 105th stolen base in 1974 and Mark McGwire's 61st home run in 1998. And his legendary call of Ozzie Smith's game-winning home run in Game 5 of the 1985 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, when Buck told St. Louis fans to "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy," still sends chills up Cardinals' fans spines every time it is replayed.

Through it all, Buck's signature phrase after every Cardinals' victory was "That's a winner."

From 1954 to 1969, Buck worked alongside another legend, Harry Caray, to form what is widely regarded as the best baseball broadcast duo ever assembled. From 1972 to 2001, Buck teamed with former Cardinals' third baseman Mike Shannon, and the pair became as synonymous with St. Louis baseball as Stan Musial and Bob Gibson. Beginning in 1991, Buck had the pleasure of calling games with his son, Joe, who now is the lead baseball and football announcer for FOX Sports television.

Buck received the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

There was more to Buck than Cardinals baseball. He broadcast seven World Series for CBS Radio. His most-famous non-St. Louis call came in Game 1 of the 1988 Fall Classic when an injured Kirk Gibson hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer for the Dodgers against the Oakland A's. "Unbelievable!" Buck exclaimed. "I don't believe what I just saw." Buck was CBS television's lead play-by-play announcer in 1990 and 1991.

Buck enjoyed a distinguished football broadcasting career, as well. He was the radio voice of Monday Night Football for CBS from 1978 to 1995, working with Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram. Buck called one of the most famous games ever, the 1967 Ice Bowl between the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, for CBS television. Buck, whose total of 17 Super Bowl broadcasts is the most of any announcer, received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

In addition, Buck announced basketball and hockey over the course of his career and also worked with Chris Schenkel on the Pro Bowler's Tour. Outside of sports, he served as the original host of "At Your Service" on KMOX, a program that essentially started the phenomenon of talk radio.

Buck's popularity extended well beyond his trademark gravelly voice. Fans from coast to coast, but particularly those in St. Louis, knew him as a tremendously generous man who made time for everyone. He was named St. Louis' Citizen of the Year in 2000 for his contributions to the community. Late in his life, Buck became interested in writing poetry, and he authored a piece called "For America" that he read to the crowd at Busch Stadium prior to the Cardinals' first game following the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks. Buck passed away June 18, 2002, and some 10,000 fans attended his public memorial service at Busch Stadium.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

A key factor in the Cardinals' consistent success has been the leadership of outstanding field managers. For proof, look no further than the franchise's 10 winningest skippers – eight of them have been inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

While it is recognized that some of the managers earned induction into baseball's ultimate shrine for their accomplishments away from St. Louis or for their playing careers, the fact remains that the Cardinals have regularly employed Cooperstown-worthy individuals.

Following is a thumbnail sketch of each of the eight Hall of Famers, listed by victories in a St. Louis uniform:

TONY LA RUSSA

1st – 1,408 wins / 1996-2011 / Hall of Fame 2014

La Russa became the winningest manager in franchise history August 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042. The Cardinals won eight division titles, three National League pennants as well as the 2006 and 2011 World Series in his 16-year tenure, the longest in franchise history. Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). Over 33 seasons, he amassed 2,728 victories, ranking third in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). La Russa managed 5,097 games, second to Mack (7,755). La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of just two to win a World Championship in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 70 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 1 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

RED SCHOENDIENST

Schoendienst served as a coach on the Cardinals' 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 followed by another National League pennant in 1968 and went on to occupy the manager's office for 12 years. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Previously, Schoendienst played for the Cardinals from 1945 to 1956 and again from 1961 to 1963, becoming one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time. A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic.

WHITEY HERZOG

3rd – 822 wins / 1980-90 / Hall of Fame 2010

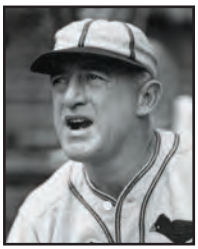
Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Herzog. His teams won three National League pennants (1982, 1985 and 1987) and the 1982 World Series, the franchise's first championship in 15 years. Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980, and that December, in the dual role of field manager and general manager, he began to transform the ball club with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. Fans subsequently flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79).

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

BILLY SOUTHWORTH
4th – 620 wins / 1929, 1940-45 / Hall of Fame 2009

Southworth piloted Cardinals teams that won the World Series in 1942 and 1944, sandwiched around a third National League pennant in 1943. St. Louis won a franchise-best 106 games in 1942, followed by back-to-back 105-win seasons, marking the best three-year run in team annals. Furthermore, a Redbird won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award each of those years: pitcher Mort Cooper in 1942, outfielder Stan Musial in 1943 and shortstop Marty Marion in 1944. Southworth's winning percentage of .642 tops the Cardinals' record book. After leaving St. Louis, Southworth managed the Boston Braves from 1946 to 1951, capturing the N.L. pennant in 1948. His lifetime winning percentage of .597 (1,044-704 record) ranks fifth on baseball's all-time list, trailing Joe McCarthy (.615), Jim Mutrie (.611), Charlie Comiskey (.608) and Frank Selee (.598).

FRANKIE FRISCH
T6th – 458 wins / 1933-38 / Hall of Fame 1947



The 1934 Cardinals – the collection of swashbuckling players dubbed the Gas House Gang – won the World Series with a roster that featured seven future Hall of Famers. The leader of the posse was Frisch, who filled the two-fold role of second baseman and manager for six seasons. The 1931 National League Most Valuable Player posted a winning record in each of his four full campaigns, recording 95 victories in 1934 and 96 the following year. Frisch, who played in the major leagues for 19 years with the New York Giants (1919-26) and Cardinals (1927-37), finished with 2,880 career hits and a .316 batting average, the highest ever for a switch-hitter. He played on two World Championship teams with each organization and was a member of the first three N.L. All-Star teams from 1933 to 1935. Frisch later managed the Pittsburgh Pirates (1940-46) and Chicago Cubs (1949-51).

BRANCH RICKEY
T6th – 458 wins / 1919-25 / Hall of Fame 1967

Certainly, Rickey is most known for his role in Jackie Robinson breaking Major League Baseball's color barrier and for creating and sustaining the first significant farm system. But during his quarter-century as manager and vice president of the Cardinals from 1917 to 1942, Rickey transformed the once-downtrodden franchise into a bona fide winner. With Rickey as manager, St. Louis finished as high as third in the National League in 1921 and 1922, but a foundation was being laid that led to the franchise's first four World Championships (1926, 1931, 1934 and 1942) and two additional N.L. pennants (1928 and 1930). Rickey, who previously was manager of the St. Louis Browns from 1913 to 1915, went on to hold executive positions with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1943-50) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1950-55). He handpicked Robinson to become the first African American to play in the big leagues in 1947.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

JOE TORRE

9th – 351 wins / 1990-95 / Hall of Fame 2014

Torre was a standout catcher, first baseman and third baseman for the Cardinals from 1969 to 1974 and later manager during a time of transition. In 1971, he topped the National League with a .363 batting average and 137 RBI en route to being named Most Valuable Player. Torre batted .297 over the course of his 18-year career. Following managerial stints with the New York Mets (1977-81) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84), Torre returned to St. Louis to replace Whitey Herzog. He piloted the Cardinals to three winning seasons, including a second-place finish in the N.L. Eastern Division in 1991. Toward the end of his tenure, Anheuser-Busch made plans to sell the franchise, and Torre moved on to the New York Yankees (1996-2007). His Bronx teams made the playoffs in each of his 12 seasons and won four World Series: 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000. Torre subsequently managed the Los Angeles Dodgers (2008 to 2010). His 84 postseason victories are the most all time.

MILLER HUGGINS

10th – 346 wins / 1913-17 / Hall of Fame 1964

Like Joe Torre, Huggins enjoyed his ultimate success as manager of the New York Yankees. A second baseman for the Cardinals from 1910 to 1916, Huggins took on managerial duties as well in 1913. The following year, St. Louis wound up in third place in the National League with an 81-72 record, its best finish since 1891. Huggins went on to manage the Yankees from 1918 to 1929, winning the franchise's first World Series in 1923. Under Huggins, New York won six American League pennants and two additional World Championships (1927 and 1928) with their Murderer's Row lineup that included Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. It was Huggins who inserted Gehrig into the starting lineup on June 2, 1925, beginning his streak of 2,130 consecutive games played.

The two non-Hall of Famers on the Cardinals' top 10 wins list are current skipper Mike Matheny and Eddie Dyer.

In six seasons (2012-17), Matheny has amassed 544 wins to rank fifth. That's an average of 91 victories per year. Moreover, Matheny became the first manager in Major League Baseball history to take teams to the postseason in each of his first four full campaigns. The Cardinals won three consecutive National League Central Division championships from 2013 to 2015 and captured the N.L. pennant in 2013.

Dyer ranks eighth with 446 wins after piloting the Cardinals from 1946 to 1950. His .578 winning percentage is topped only by Billy Southworth among St. Louis managers at the helm for more than two seasons. Dyer's first team, which welcomed back players who served in World War II, captured the franchise's third World Championship in five seasons, and each of his next three squads finished second in the N.L. Dyer did not manage again after leaving the Redbirds.

Five other individuals who served as manager of the Cardinals are Hall of Famers: Roger Bresnahan (1909-12), Roger Connor (1896), Rogers Hornsby (1925-26), Bill McKechnie (1928-29) and Kid Nichols (1904-05).

CARDINALS HALL OF FAME

The Cardinals Hall of Fame was established in January of 2014 to honor those individuals who have had a significant impact on the tradition-rich franchise.

Twenty-two individuals were automatically selected for the Hall of Fame in conjunction with its formation. Members of the inaugural class included those Cardinals enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame, primarily as members of the Cardinals organization, and those individuals whose numbers have been retired by the franchise. (See list below.)

Outfielder Jim Edmonds, shortstop/manager Marty Marion, outfielder Willie McGee and player-turned-broadcaster Mike Shannon subsequently comprised the Class of 2014. Outfielder Curt Flood, pitcher Bob Forsch, coach/instructor George Kissell and catcher Ted Simmons made up the Class of 2015. Owner/president Sam Breadon, pitcher Chris Carpenter, outfielder Terry Moore and catcher/first baseman/third baseman/manager Joe Torre were selected as the Class of 2016. Outfielder Pepper Martin, catcher Tim McCarver and first baseman Mark McGwire made up the Class of 2017.

The Cardinals Hall of Fame currently consists of 37 members.

To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played for the Cardinals for at least three seasons and have been retired from Major League Baseball for at least three years. Eligible players are divided into two categories – modern players and veteran players. A veteran is a player who retired more than 40 years prior to the induction year.

Annually, the Cardinals convene a "red-ribbon committee" of experts to select six to 10 players to be placed on a ballot on Cardinals.com, where fans have the opportunity to vote for a period of six weeks. The two players with the most online votes will be inducted. The committee also picks a veteran player to be inducted. In addition, the Cardinals organization may choose from time to time to induct an important figure in franchise history, such as a coach, broadcaster or member of the front office, without a vote or committee selection.

Each member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame is permanently recognized in the Hall of Fame Gallery, located on the second floor of Cardinals Nation, just outside the entrance to the Cardinals Museum. The Hall of Fame Gallery is free and open to the public.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

MEDIA WEBSITE

Cardinals gamenotes, press releases and other information can be found at CardinalsPressbox.com.

Videos and information can also be accessed at the team's FTP site: ftp://stanmusial.cardsnet.net

CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued to legitimate news-gathering agencies only and must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made online at credentials.mlb.com. Requests should be made at least two working days prior to the game. Credentials are issued to working members of the press; no spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations could result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available four hours prior to the start of the game at the media window, 424 South 7th St., located at the southwest corner of the stadium, near Gate 2. Photo identification is required. The press entrance is to the right of the media window.

ADMISSION: All media should enter the stadium through the press entrance at the southwest corner of the stadium, Media / VIP Entrance. The stadium will be open to media four hours before game time. If an earlier entrance to the ballpark is necessary, please contact a member of the communications staff.

PRESS BOX: The broadcast level of the pressbox is located on Level 3 (Loge Concourse) and the upper pressbox is located on Level 4 (Terrace Concourse) of the stadium. The media elevator is located in the lobby of the media entrance and is designated for employees and press only. Media should take the elevator to either the third level (broadcast) or fourth level (writers/radio) to reach the pressboxes. The press box is for working members of the media only and is a non-smoking area.

MEDIA DINING: The media dining facility is on the main service level of the stadium. It is open for meal service one-and one half hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately one hour after the game begins. The dining facility is located down the hallway off the media entrance lobby, on your left at the end of the hall. A media meal is $10.

CLUBHOUSES: Both the Cardinals and visitors clubhouses are located on the lower level of the stadium. The Cardinals clubhouse is on the first-base side while the visitors area can be found on the third-base side of the stadium. All working media with clubhouse credentials have access to the clubhouses 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until the beginning of batting practice. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than 10 minutes following the game's conclusion.

FIELD: No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges. All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch.

PRESS NOTES: Game notes and statistics are available in the press box approximately two hours prior to game time and on www.mlbpressbox.com. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available by request in the press box from club communications representatives. Digital versions of media guides can be viewed and are available for download at www.mlbpressbox.com.

MLBPRESSBOX.COM: Gamenotes, team headshots, logos, press releases and MLB information can all be found at this site. Accredited media agencies can sign up for an account to have access at all times to regular season and postseason data.

LOS CARDENALES SPANISH MEDIA GUIDELINES

CREDENCIALES: Credenciales se otorgarán únicamente a agencias noticiosas legítimas y deberán ser exhibidas de manera visible a toda hora. Todo tipo de petición de credenciales se tendrá que hacer online en credentials.mlb.com. Toda petición se deberá hacer por lo menos dos días laborales antes del juego. Las credenciales se otorgarán únicamente a los miembros de la prensa. Los esposos y esposas, los invitados o hijos de los miembros de la prensa no podrán tener pases y las credenciales no serán transferibles. Se le prohíbe a todo personal con credenciales solicitar autógrafos. Cualquier violación de las reglas podría resultar en una revocación inmediata de la credencial. Todas las credenciales para el juego estarán disponibles 4 horas antes del comienzo del juego en la ventanilla de los medios de comunicación en 424 South 7th St. localizada en la esquina suroeste del estadio cerca de la puerta 2. Una identificación con foto será requerida. La entrada de la prensa está a la derecha de la ventanilla de prensa.

ADMISION: Todos los miembros de la prensa deben ingresar al estadio por la entrada de prensa en la esquina suroeste del estadio, "Media/VIP Entrance." El estadio estará abierto a los medios 4 horas antes del juego. Si es necesaria una entrada más temprano al estadio, favor de contactar a un miembro del personal de comunicación.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING • RADIO

KMOX Radio begins their 61st year overall and eighth consecutive as the Voice of the Cardinals. The station's 50,000-watt signal at night can reach more than 40 states and parts of Canada. The station carried Cardinals games for 52 years through 2005 and returned as the team's flagship station in 2011. The club boasts a radio network of 150 stations covering 8 states (Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Missouri, Oklahoma, Tennessee). KMOX will broadcast all 162 of the 2018 games and 18 of the team's spring training games. Mike Shannon and partner John Rooney will continue to provide play-by-play commentary for home games. Rooney and partner Ricky Horton will broadcast on the road.

KMOX NewsRadio 1120 The Voice of St. Louis

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon will be broadcasting his 47th season on the Cardinals radio network. Throughout his years as a broadcaster for the Cardinals, Shannon has also made appearances for the Cardinals television broadcasts, including as a pre-game analyst for FOX Midwest. He also has worked with NBC's Baseball Game of the Week and called Cardinals football games on radio.

A St. Louis native, Shannon broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and became the regular right fielder during the 1964 World Championship season. During the 1964 Series opener vs. New York, he hit a game-tying, two-run homer as St. Louis went on to defeat the Yankees in seven games. In 1967 Shannon was moved to third base to make room for newly acquired right fielder Roger Maris, as the Cardinals went on to win two straight National League pennants in 1967 and '68 as well as the 1967 World Series.

Mike's career was cut short by a kidney disease in 1970. He joined the Cardinals front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales and entered the broadcast booth in 1972, where he has remained. His many years with the organization give Shannon a unique insight in his commentary. He was honored at the end of the 2007 season for his 50 years of service with the club.

Shannon has received numerous awards and honors throughout his career. A gifted athlete, he was a High School All-American football player, and in 1957 was named the Missouri prep Player of the Year in both basketball and football - the only player ever to receive both in the same year. He was named St. Louis Ambassador's 1993 Sportsman of the Year, received the 1985 Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting, St. Louis chapter, and received the Sportscaster of the Year award for the state of Missouri from the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) in 2002, 2003 and 2014. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his on air career and as a player on the field, and in May 2013 the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame named Mike a Missouri Sports Legend, the 26th such honor given. In 2009 he was selected to be a member of the Academy of Missouri Squires and was honored as St. Louis Press Club Media Person of the Year in 2010. He was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

JOHN ROONEY

John Rooney is in his 13th season of broadcasting Cardinals games. A Richmond, Mo. native, Rooney came to St. Louis from the Chicago White Sox where he spent 18 years (1988-2005) - one in TV followed by 17 seasons in the radio booth. The Cardinals World Championship crown in 2006 gave John the privilege of working with the World Champion team in back-to-back seasons, following the White Sox win in 2005.

Rooney, 63, called his first major league game in 1983 with Shannon and Hall of Fame Broadcaster Jack Buck during a three-game series between the Cardinals and host Cincinnati Reds. He began his baseball broadcasting career at the class AAA level, spending the 1981-82 seasons with the Oklahoma City 89ers and the 1983-84 campaigns with the Louisville Redbirds.

John juggled two stints in the 1980's as a sports reporter for KMOX around his baseball broadcasting and serving as the voice of Missouri Tigers football and basketball on radio and TV for 20 seasons. Rooney's National Assignments over the years include the MLB Division Series, League Championship Series and World Series, Saturday Afternoon and Sunday Night Baseball for CBS Radio, the Fox TV Saturday Baseball Game Of The Week and ESPN Radio Saturday and Sunday night baseball assignments. Rooney has worked 20 MLB All Star Games on National Radio, called NFL games on CBS and Sports USA Radio and has broadcast 19 NCAA Tournaments on the National Radio Network, including 10 National Championship Games. Over the years Rooney has been an announcer on various college basketball telecasts including the Big 10, Conference USA, Big East and has been the Voice of the Missouri Valley Conference telecasts for the past five seasons. He has broadcast College Football Bowl Games including the Cotton, Orange, Fiesta, Sun, Independence and Capital One Bowls.

Rooney was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2004 and recipient of the 2018 Tom Hammond Sports Media Award for the Kentucky Bluegrass Sports Commission. He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters: Colleen and Rachel.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING • RADIO

MIKE CLAIBORNE

Mike Claiborne will be covering his 35th year of St. Louis sports in 2018. He began his time at KMOX in February of 1981 co-hosting "Sports Open Line." His various duties in St. Louis have consisted of being a color analyst, providing play-by-play, a studio analyst and sideline reporter for St. Louis University Basketball, UM St. Louis Basketball, St. Louis Blues Hockey, St. Louis Rams, Fox Sports Midwest and the St. Louis Cardinals.

This is Mike's 11th year as a part of the radio Cardinals Broadcast team with Mike Shannon and John Rooney. Their work together includes the pregame show, play-by-play and Player of the Game.

Mike currently lives in St. Louis and is the father of two daughters, Taylor and Alyx.

JIM JACKSON

Jim Jackson, the man who "turns the knobs and pulls the levers" for Cardinals radio, has served as the chief engineer and production coordinator for Cardinals radio since 1998 and has been part of three World Series (2006, 2011 & 2013) with the Cardinals radio broadcast team.

Jackson, a St. Louis native who graduated from Mehlville High School, has served in his same capacity for the St. Louis Blues, St. Louis University Billikens and the St. Louis Rams and he has also worked for the Anheuser-Busch Bud Sports Productions group.

In addition to working with current announcers Mike Shannon, John Rooney, Ricky Horton and Mike Claiborne, Jackson has worked alongside Hall of Fame announcer Jack Buck, Joe Buck, Joel Meyers and Wayne Hagin.

Jackson, who has five grown children and eight grandchildren, lives in St. Louis with his wife, Fran.

After broadcasting a select number of games the past two seasons, the Cardinals begin a new partnership in 2018 with WIJR AM 880 La Tremenda to carry Cardinals Radio Spanish broadcasts. Polo Ascencio and Bengie Molina will continue to provide play-by-play commentary for all Friday, Saturday and Sunday home games this season in addition to the Cardinals Home Opener on Thursday, April 5.

POLO ASCENCIO

Polo Ascencio enters his 3rd season as a Cardinals Spanish broadcaster. On September 29, 2016, he became the first Spanish play-by-play broadcaster in Cardinals history in a game that ended in dramatic fashion with a Yadier Molina walk-off single over the Cincinnati Reds.

Polo's career began in 2004 in radio and later on TV as a sports anchor for Univision. In 2006, he was a writer for the Los Angeles Dodgers Spanish website.

Ascencio was a producer/reporter for the Los Angeles Dodgers and Time Warner Cable (2008-14), where he created and hosted of "Cubriendo Las Bases." In the winter of 2014, Ascencio was appointed play-by-play announcer for Aguilas de Mexicali in the Mexican Baseball Winter League.

The 2015-16 seasons were spent inside the radio booth with the Dodgers as a producer and statistician for both Spanish and English radio alongside MLB Hall of Fame members Vin Scully and Jaime Jarrin, doubling as a fill in for post-game shows.

In 2017, Polo became the first announcer for Ke Buena Radio and the Saint Louis FC soccer organization of the United Soccer League.

In his career of over a decade now, Ascencio has covered all editions of the World Baseball Classic, NCAA football, BCS games, Copa America Centenario de Futbol, Liga MX soccer games, Major League Soccer, International soccer challenge matches and world championship boxing.

Born in Tijuana, Mexico, Polo resides in Santa Barbara, California with his wife Maribel and their children, Bianca and Jacob.

BENGIE MOLINA

Molina begins his 3rd season with the Cardinals serving as Color Analyst for the Cardinals Radio Spanish Broadcasts. Molina was the Assistant Hitting Coach for the Cardinals in the 2013 season and the First Base/Catching Coach for the 2014 Texas Rangers.

Molina concluded a 13-season Major League career in the 2010 World Series. He posted a .274 career batting average with 144 HRs and 711 RBI. Molina spent most of his career with the Anaheim Angels, after signing in 1993 as a non-drafted free-agent. He made his Major League debut in 1998 with Anaheim and in his two best seasons for the Angels, 2000 and 2003, he had almost identical numbers: hitting .281, 14 home runs and 71 RBI. He signed as a free agent with Toronto in 2006, hitting 19 home runs and batting .284. He signed with the San Francisco Giants in 2007 and again hit 19 home runs with 81 RBI and then in 2009 he smacked a career-high 20 home runs with 80 RBI. He had a career-high 95 RBI with 16 HR in 2008.

Molina won a World Championship with the Anaheim Angels in 2002, playing in all seven World Series games while hitting .286. He also had the unique experience in 2010 of beginning the season with San Francisco before a mid-season trade to Texas, the two eventual World Series teams. Molina was a Gold Glove recipient in both 2002 and 2003.

Molina is the older brother of Cardinals catcher Yadier Molina and two-time World Champion 15-year MLB catcher Jose Molina. The trio's father, Benjamin, Sr., was inducted into Puerto Rico's Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame as a second baseman on October 27, 2002, the same day as Game 7 of the 2002 World Series in which Bengie started.

Molina, a Dorado and Vega Alta, Puerto Rico native, currently resides in Gilbert, AZ with his wife, Jamie, and daughter, Jayda. He also has two older daughters, Kyshly and Kelssy.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING • TELEVISION

FOX Sports Midwest is the television home for Cardinals broadcasts again in 2018, the first year of a new long-term media rights agreement that keeps Cardinals baseball on the regional sports network for years to come. FOX Sports Midwest will televise all regular-season Cardinals games and 15 Cardinals spring training games in 2018. Play-by-play and color commentary will be provided by Dan McLaughlin, Al Hrabosky, Jim Edmonds, Brad Thompson, Ricky Horton and Tim McCarver, with Scott Warmann and Jim Hayes as pregame and postgame hosts and in-game reporters.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin will be entering his 21st season as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals television broadcasts on FOX Sports Midwest. A St. Louis native, McLaughlin called his first major league game at the age of 23 and his work in 2013 earned him an Emmy Award for outstanding play-by-play. His baseball assignments have included national telecasts of FOX Saturday Baseball. Dan has previously filled in on numerous Cardinals radio broadcasts working alongside Mike Shannon and Hall of Fame announcer Jack Buck, and he continues to produce daily radio and television features on the Cardinals Network and cardinals.com.

During the baseball off-season, McLaughlin has worked play by play for "FOX NFL Sunday" as well as calling college football and basketball for ESPN and FOX Sports. McLaughlin has done work as the studio host of St. Louis Blues hockey on both radio and television broadcasts and this past off-season became the television voice of St. Louis University Billikens Basketball.

A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood University where he played baseball, Dan began his professional broadcasting career at KMOX Radio and in 2001, he won the A.I.R. Award as St. Louis' best sportscaster. He is a two-time winner of the Mid-America Emmy Award for play-by-play. McLaughlin, 44, was inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame in 2005, and in 2016 he received the prestigious Burnes/Broeg Award from the Missouri Athletic Club for his contributions to the city of St. Louis through sports. Away from the booth, he serves on the boards and is active in numerous local charities including "The Dan McLaughlin Golf Tournament" which has raised over $3 million dollars for children with disabilities. He and his wife, Libby, make their home in St. Louis with their son Luke, daughter Avery, and twins Olivia and Barrett.

RICK ANKIEL

Rick Ankiel, an accomplished major league pitcher and outfielder, serves as an analyst on Cardinals pregame and postgame shows on FOX Sports Midwest. He's filled that role since 2016. He'll also call select Cardinals spring training telecasts on FOX Sports Midwest from the broadcast booth in 2018.

Ankiel made his big-league debut with the Cardinals in 1999, at age 20. He started 30 games in 2000, winning 11 games with a 3.50 ERA and 194 strikeouts and finishing second in National League Rookie of the Year voting. He last pitched in the majors in 2004. Ankiel returned in 2007 as an outfielder, hitting 76 home runs over seven seasons with the Cardinals, Royals, Braves, Nationals, Astros and Mets. He became the first player since Babe Ruth to win at least 10 games as a pitcher and hit at least 50 home runs. He retired as a player in 2013.

In 2017, Ankiel published a memoir titled The Phenomenon: Pressure, The Yips, and the Pitch that Changed My Life.

Ankiel resides in Jupiter, Fla., with his wife Lory and sons Declan and Ryker.

JIM EDMONDS

Jim Edmonds will enter his third season with the Cardinals television broadcast team serving as game analyst broadcasting select games alongside Dan McLaughlin on FOX Sports Midwest. Edmonds will also return for his sixth season as a studio analyst on the Cardinals Live pre-game and post-game shows.

An eight-time Gold Glove recipient and four-time All-Star, Edmonds was one of the best outfielders to play centerfield for the Cardinals. He was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in the inaugural year of the Hall opening in 2014. Edmonds played parts of 17 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Angels, Cardinals, Padres, Cubs, Brewers and Reds, and holds a career .284 batting average after playing in over 2,000 games. He ended his career just shy of 500 doubles (437), 400 homers (393) and 1,200 RBI (1,199). The bulk of Edmonds career was spent wearing a Cardinals uniform, as he played for eight seasons with St. Louis (2000-07), hitting .285 with 241 home runs and 713 RBI. He helped lead the team to six playoff appearances, including the 2006 World Series Championship, and in 2000 and 2004 finished in the top five in National League MVP voting.

The left-handed hitting Edmonds was known for his highlight reel catches, perhaps none bigger than his diving catch in Game 7 of the National League Championship Series vs. the Houston Astros at Busch Stadium in 2004. One night after Edmonds forced Game 7 with a 12th-inning, two-run, walk-off homer, he snared a line drive in the left-centerfield gap with a diving catch and his back to the plate.

Edmonds, 47, has four children, daughters Lauren, Hayley and Sutton, and a son, Landon. He and his wife, Meghan, split their time between St. Louis and Orange County, California.

RICKY HORTON

Ricky Horton will continue his work as a broadcaster on Cardinals telecasts for a 15th season and will join the radio broadcast team for all road games. He will provide play-by-play and color commentary on FOX Sports Midwest and on KMOX/Cardinals Radio Network. Horton provided color commentary on all KSDK broadcasts during the 2007-2010 seasons, as well as working as a baseball play-by-play announcer and analyst, and Cardinals Live pre- and post-game analyst for FOX Sports Midwest. He provided color commentary on KPLR telecasts from 2004-2006. Horton has been a part of the Cardinals Radio broadcast team since 1997.

A former left-handed pitcher for the Cardinals, Ricky spent seven years in the Major Leagues, playing for St. Louis, Los Angeles and the Chicago White Sox. He made his Major League debut with the Cardinals in 1984 and participated in the 1985 and 1987 World Series with the Redbirds and won the Series in 1988 while with the Dodgers. Horton was both a starter and relief pitcher for the club and had one of his best years in 1987 when he went 8-3 in 67 games, pitching 125 innings. In 1991, he spent the season as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians minor league system.

After retiring from his Major League playing career, Horton remained in the St. Louis area where he has been active in the Greater St. Louis Area Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as the Director of the St. Louis FCA since 1993. Horton has assisted with Baseball Chapel with the Cardinals and he also worked with the St. Louis Rams football team in leading chapel and Bible studies. He received the National Sportsmanship Award in 2008, the Mid American Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting in 2011 and he was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.

Horton, 58, and his wife, Ann, reside in St. Louis and have two children, Jen and Drew.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky will be calling games on Cardinals telecasts for his 34th season. It marks his 22nd straight-season in his role as analyst on FOX Sports Midwest. He began working as a commentator on telecasts for the team in 1985.

Hrabosky made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals 1970's bullpen, to the broadcast booth. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

Hrabosky, 68, was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2003, the Fullerton College Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Savanna High School Hall of Fame in 2011. Away from the booth he is active in many charities, including the St. Louis Zoo, Angel Arms and FOX Sports Midwest's work with The Mission Continues. He and his wife, June, reside in St. Louis.

TIM McCARVER

Tim McCarver will be in his 5th year of broadcasting with FOX Sports Midwest as an analyst on select Cardinals telecasts. McCarver worked 28 consecutive MLB postseasons on network television dating back to 1984, providing analysis for a record 23 World Series and 20 All-Star Games. His work earned him three straight Emmy Awards for "Outstanding Sports Event Analyst" (2000-02) and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's 2012 Ford C. Frick Award. McCarver teamed with Joe Buck a record 17 seasons as MLB on FOX's lead national baseball broadcast team. No baseball broadcasting tandem called more World Series (15) and All-Star Games (14).

He began his broadcasting career in 1980 and has the distinction of being the only MLB analyst to have worked for all four major broadcast networks. McCarver caught 12 seasons with the Cardinals and played in two All-Star Games (1966, 1967) three League Championship Series (1976-78) and three World Series (1964, 1967, 1968), winning championships in 1964 and 1967. He also played for Philadelphia, Montreal and Boston.

BRAD THOMPSON

Former Cardinals pitcher Brad Thompson serves as a game, pregame and postgame analyst for Cardinals telecasts on FOX Sports Midwest.

Thompson first joined FOX Sports Midwest in 2015 as part of the network's studio team. He'll call regular-season games in the booth, alongside Dan McLaughlin, for the first time in 2018.

Thompson pitched in 201 games over six Major League seasons, primarily out of the bullpen, with the Cardinals and Kansas City Royals. He was an integral part of the Cardinals bullpen during the team's 2005 and 2006 playoff seasons, with a 2.95 ERA over 40 appearances in 2005 and a 3.34 ERA in 43 games in 2006.

Thompson has been a host of the afternoon drive-time show on St. Louis sports radio station ESPN 101 for four years.

A native of Las Vegas, Thompson attended Dixie State University. He resides in St. Louis with is wife, Andrea, son Dylan and daughter Lexi.

JIM HAYES

Jim Hayes serves as a host and reporter for FOX Sports Midwest, covering the Cardinals and St. Louis Blues for the network's pregame and postgame shows and live game coverage. In his 18 years in St. Louis, Hayes has become one of the city's most well-liked sportscasters, known for his wit and interviews with athletes.

Hayes came to FOX Sports in 2000 and began covering St. Louis-area sports in 2001. Hayes is a 1984 graduate of the State University College at Geneseo, N.Y. and a Mid-America Emmy Award winner. Hayes also co-hosts a morning radio show on St. Louis sports talk station KFNS 590 AM. Hayes, wife Erin and son Tyler reside in St. Louis.

SCOTT WARMANN

Scott Warmann has served as the primary host of St. Louis Cardinals and St. Louis Blues pregame and postgame shows on FOX Sports Midwest since 2016. He also handles play-by-play duties for college sports, including the Missouri Valley Conference, Saint Louis University and SIUE events.

A St. Louis native, Warmann was also a sportscaster on KMOX Radio and a studio host for five seasons on the St. Louis Rams radio network, including the 1999 Super Bowl championship season.

Warmann is a Lindenwood University alumnus.

The Cardinals and Busch Stadium hosted the 2009 MLB All-Star Game, the first time St. Louis had hosted the mid-summer classic since 1966.

BALLPARK VILLAGE

Ballpark Village, located on 10-acres just north of Busch Stadium, is the first master-planned development designed around a new MLB ballpark. The $100 million first phase of Ballpark Village opened in March 2014 and represents one of the top restaurant and entertainment districts in the region. The 100,000 square foot, multi-story project is visible beyond the left center field wall and compliments the energy and excitement of the game day experience.

The first phase of Ballpark Village is anchored by Cardinals Nation, Budweiser Brew House, Fox Sports Midwest Live!, PBR St. Louis – A Cowboy Bar, Howl at the Moon and Drunken Fish. Ballpark Village features five live performance stages, the largest retractable roof of its kind, the biggest indoor TV screen in the Midwest and an outdoor festival space that recreates the infield of the previous Busch Stadium in its exact historical location. Other food and eating locations at The Village include Tengo Hambre and The Fudgery.

Cardinals Nation is a 34,000 square foot venue comprised of four key elements: a two-story restaurant and bar, an 8,000 square foot world-class Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum, a Cardinals Authentics retail store featuring game used memorabilia and a 334-seat roof top deck with spectacular game views and an all-inclusive experience unlike anything in baseball today. The Cardinals Nation restaurant is a high-energy, memorabilia-infused space that sets a new standard for sports-inspired restaurants with three separate patios, two large bars and large flat screen televisions. The Cardinals Nation rooftop seating deck is a ticketed seating location looking into Busch Stadium that includes food and beverage, a complimentary ticket to the Cardinals museum, Busch Stadium audio/visual feeds and access to other areas within Ballpark Village. Cardinals Nation allows Cardinals fans to stay connected to the team year-round.

The new Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum within Cardinals Nation hosts the largest team-held collection in baseball and is second only to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in terms of size with over 16,000 memorabilia items and hundreds of thousands of archival photographs. With over 8,000 square feet on the second floor of Cardinals Nation, the Museum celebrates the rich history of baseball in St. Louis and the legacy of one of baseball's most storied franchises.

In the fall of 2017, the Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum opened a special one-year exhibit on the topic "Goodwill Through Baseball: Cardinals Across the Pacific." The Museum showcases some of its incredible collection by hosting rotating unique exhibits each year.

Mark McGwire, Tim McCarver and family members of posthumous inductee Pepper Martin during the 2017 Cardinals Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony.

The initial class of the Cardinals Hall of Fame was inducted Saturday, August 16, 2014. The plaques that adorn the gallery are located on the second floor of Cardinals Nation just outside the entrance to the Cardinals Museum. The Cardinals Hall of Fame Gallery is free to the public, so fans of all generations can celebrate players that represent the best of the 125-year history of one of baseball's most iconic teams. More info on the Cardinals class of Hall of Fame inductees and election process can be found in the history section.

At the heart of Ballpark Village is a central gathering place: Fox Sports Midwest Live!, which is a 20,000 square foot entertainment marketplace that features a 40-foot diagonal LED screen that provides St. Louis sports fans with the best sports viewing experience in the country. Also under the one-of-a kind 100 foot long retractable glass roof is a stage for live concerts, a 200-seat restaurant and a VIP seating area. FOX Sports Midwest, the television home of the Cardinals, produces more than 200 shows per year in its studio on the second level overlooking FOX Sports Midwest Live!.

BALLPARK VILLAGE PHASE II

The St. Louis Cardinals and The Cordish Companies are currently underway with the construction of a $260 million 700,000 square foot second phase expansion of Ballpark Village. The development includes the construction of One Cardinal Way, a 29-story luxury high-rise residential tower, a ten-story Class-A office building anchored by PriceWaterhouseCoopers (PwC), the construction of an upscale Live! By Loews Convention Hotel, the development of a three-story spectacular glass retail pavilion that will be anchored by the 31,000 square foot Onelife Fitness, a nationally recognized, state-of-the-art health and fitness club, and the development of additional street level retail, dining and entertainment.

Ballpark Village's second phase will complete the full build-out of Clark Street, transforming it into one of the most unique city streets in all of major league sports. The expansion will create a vibrant 24/7 urban neighborhood for downtown St. Louis.

The residential apartment tower called One Cardinal Way will be a modern, 29-story, 230 foot tall, luxury high-rise at the corner of Clark and Broadway that will offer views of the Gateway Arch, the Mississippi River, the St. Louis skyline, and unobstructed views directly into Busch Stadium.

Designed by Hord Coplan Macht (HCM), One Cardinal Way will be designed to meet National Green Building System certification and will feature high-end materials, expansive ceiling heights, state-of-the-art appliances, and parking within the building. Apartments are now leasing for Spring 2020 occupancy, visit www.OneCardinalWay.com for more information.

The ten-story Class A-Office building anchored by PwC, which will be the first "new construction" office building built in downtown St. Louis since 1989, will sit at the corner of 8th Street and Cardinal Way, a new street that will run through Ballpark Village between 8th and Broadway.

Phase II also features a signature three-story glass retail pavilion that will include both the two story Onelife Fitness, and a retail marketplace that will include diverse food options and other amenities to support the new office and residents in the project.

The second phase of Ballpark Village stands to create 1,500 construction jobs and more than 1,000 permanent new jobs when it opens. More than 1,000 permanent new jobs were created as part of the first phase of Ballpark Village that opened in 2014.

The construction of Ballpark Village represents the next step in the Cardinals' vision for downtown St. Louis that began with the opening of the new $411 million privately-financed Busch Stadium in 2006. The second phase project will bring the team's total investment in new construction in downtown St. Louis to well over $750 million since 2005.

CARDINALS CARE

Caring For Kids In The Community

Cardinals Care is the team's community foundation dedicated to improving the lives of children. Established in 1997, Cardinals Care gives fans a way of teaming up with Cardinals players and the organization to help children in our community - both on and off the baseball field.

Since its inception, Cardinals Care has invested over $23 million back into the St. Louis community through three key initiatives:

- Redbird Rookies youth baseball/softball league
- Building and renovating ball fields in under-resourced areas
- Distributing cash grants to local nonprofits who work with children.

To learn more about Cardinals Care programs or to make a donation, visit cardinals.com/community.

Cardinals Care Funding

Cardinals Care is funded by the generosity of our fans, players and team through individual donations and continued support of various annual events including, in-stadium silent auctions and 50/50 raffles, Winter Warm-Up, 6K Run/Walk, Ted Savage RBI Golf Tournament and more.

Redbird Rookies

Redbird Rookies, the flagship program of Cardinals Care, is a free baseball/softball league for kids who otherwise might not have the opportunity to play. In addition to providing all the uniforms, gloves, bats, balls and other equipment needed for each team, Redbird Rookies provides extensive off-field support in the areas of health, education, mentoring and the cultural arts.

This season marks the 15th anniversary of Redbird Rookies, which serves nearly 3,000 kids in 17 leagues across the greater St. Louis community and parts of rural Missouri and Illinois.

Throughout the program, participants receive on-field coaching, support and character development. Off the field, Rookies participate in a reading program, learn about healthy eating, attend a health fair as well as music and cultural events, and have an opportunity to earn college scholarships.

Cardinals Care Grants

Each year, during ceremonies at Busch Stadium, Cardinals Care awards grants to local non-profits and community based organizations that support kids.

In 2017, Cardinals Care distributed over $450,000 to nearly 200 organizations. Learn more at cardinals.com/grants.

Cardinals Care Youth Ball Fields

As part of the Cardinals' commitment to the Redbird Rookies program and overall beautification of the greater St. Louis area, Cardinals Care has successfully built and revived 23 youth baseball fields in the St. Louis community to date. Most recently, the Cardinals dedicated Dexter Fowler Field at Hess Park in Decatur, Ill. in July 2017.

CARDINALS CARE YOUTH BASEBALL FIELDS

Cardinals Care has built or renovated 23 ball fields throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In addition to the charitable work of Cardinals Care, the Cardinals are committed to making a difference in our community and in the lives of those who call it home through a variety of programs and initiatives.

Every year, the Cardinals host a blood drive with the American Red Cross, participate in the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, offer complimentary tickets to clergy members, and distribute thousands of items and ticket vouchers to local organizations seeking fundraising assistance.
Additional outreach is outlined below.

Player Involvement

Throughout the season, Cardinals players and coaches spend quality time in the St. Louis community bringing smiles to the faces of fans in need through a variety of outreach opportunities.

Learn more at cardinals.com/playerscare.

Player Ticket Program

Throughout the season, players like Adam Wainwright, Dexter Fowler and Carlos Martinez host groups of kids from area non-profit and community-based organizations at Busch Stadium through our Player Ticket Program.

Each group gets to attend a complementary Cardinals game, watch batting practice, and meet a player in the dugout before the game. Participants also receive a t-shirt and meal voucher, thanks in partnership with Scott Credit Union.

Cardinals Wives

While the Cardinals players compete on the field, their generous wives, fiancés, and girlfriends join together to make a difference throughout the St. Louis community. Each year, the Cardinals Wives give back through a variety of fundraisers and events for area charities, including annual hospital visits, Grab Bag fundraiser, and support of Make-A-Wish® Missouri.

In 2017, the Cardinals Wives received the prestigious Chris Greicius Celebrity Award – a national award from Make-A-Wish® America that recognizes exceptional wish-granting support by celebrities and athletes.

Learn more at cardinals.com/wivescare.

Fredbird and Friends Elementary School Program

Each year, the Cardinals visit thousands of students at area schools through the Fredbird & Friends Elementary School Program. Presented by FOX Sports Midwest, Fredbird and Friends is a free, traveling assembly designed to educate and entertain St. Louis area students in grades K-5.

Hosted by Fredbird and a Cardinals personality (Mike Claiborne, Al Hrabosky, Kyle McClellan and Brad Thompson), the program helps students answer the question, "What makes a good teammate?" through three key messages: Be Active! Be Responsible! and Be Yourself!

Learn more at cardinals.com/schoolprogram.

Community Ticket Program

The Community Ticket Program is designed to help distribute complimentary tickets to non-profit and community-based organizations that may not otherwise have the resources or opportunity to attend a Cardinals game.

The Cardinals annually distribute nearly 60,000 tickets through this program.

Learn more at cardinals.com/communitytickets.

Cardinals Kids Club

The Cardinals Kids Club is the exclusive fan club for Cardinals fans ages 13 and younger. Each Kids Club member receives two tickets to a Cardinals home game, exclusive merchandise, access to the annual members-only autograph party at Busch Stadium and more.

Learn more at cardinals.com/kidsclub.

MLB Community Inititives

Throughout the season, the Cardinals participate in a number of Major League Baseball league-wide initiatives that raise money and/or awareness for the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Jackie Robinson Foundation, prostate, breast and childhood cancer, military appreciation, and more.
